

My Favourite Game Badminton

- Badminton is my favourite game, and also many children consider this game as their favourite. Children love to play this game because it is easy to understand and doesn't require a lot of skills.
- Badminton is a common sport which is played casually at beaches or home yards. In case it is a formal game and is played with the purpose of competition, then it is played in a court inside the indoor stadium.
- Every age group plays badminton. There is no age limit for playing badminton. However, to play formal games in badminton, you have to be on a specific age limit.
- The two types of equipment that are used in the game are racquet and shuttlecock.
- The shuttlecock is made of feather, and the racquet is made of nets and metal.
- The game was first developed in British India then it became popular all over Asia. Many countries started introducing this game to there people, and it got famous overtime.
- The only thing that a player is required to do in a badminton game is hit the shuttlecock out of his/her court to the opponent's court.
- You will score a point when the opponent will miss one of his shots and is unable to hit the shuttlecock out of his/her court.
