Emma Illustrated Annotated:

Emma "Annotated and Illustrated Book" Jane Austen, 2020-03-30 Emma Woodhouse has the world at her fingertips. She's young, pretty, and smart; she also happens to be the reigning queen of her village's social scene. Emma lives in Highbury, a small town about sixteen miles outside of London, with her aging father. Mr. Woodhouse loves Emma, but he's utterly unable to offer her any guidance, which is perhaps why Emma doesn't seem to have any sense of her own limitations. Life seems pretty sweet, if a bit boring, and so Emma decides to spice things up by taking on a protégé, Harriet Smith. Even though Emma's determined never to marry herself, she immediately decides to find Harriet a husband. Determined to make Harriet into a gentlewoman, Emma sets out to refine Harriet's tastes, especially in men. She convinces Harriet to dump Robert Martin, the young farmer who likes her, and set her sights on the town's clergyman, Mr. Elton. Unfortunately, Mr. Elton turns out to be in love with Emma, or at least with Emma's money. After the Mr. Elton debacle, Emma thinks that she's learned her lessons in matchmaking. Luckily for us, if not for Harriet, she hasn't. Emma Annotated and Illustrated Book For Children Jane Austen, 2020-08-26

The real evils indeed of Emma's situation were the power of having rather too much her own way and a disposition to think a little too well of herself. The narrator opens the novel by introducing us to Emma Woodhouse, a girl endowed with some of the best blessings of existence, including good looks, intelligence, riches, and an affectionate father. Emma's only disadvantages are that she is slightly spoiled and that she thinks a little too well of herself. Emma's mother died before Emma could form many memories of her, but her gentle governess, Miss Taylor, provided a motherly love. After Emma's older sister, Isabella, was married and moved to London, Miss Taylor and Emma became best friends. As the novel begins, Miss Taylor has just left Hartfield, the estate of Emma and Mr. Woodhouse, to marry a widower named Mr. Weston, and Emma is left without a companion. She attempts to comfort her despondent father, who hates change, with the thought that they will see the new Mrs. Weston often, but Emma only partially succeeds in comforting herself. At this moment, neighborhood resident Mr. Knightley, the brother of Isabella's husband, pays a visit, having returned from visiting their mutual relations in London. He affirms the appropriateness of the match between Mr. Weston and Miss Taylor and gently chides Emma when she claims credit. Emma declares that she will repeat her matchmaking success by finding a wife for Mr. Elton, the village rector.

Emma "Annotated & Illustrated Book" Teacher Edition Jane Austen, 2020-03-11 Emma is a young lady who lost her mother as an infant and was brought up to be spoiled by her father. Thus, she is a bit brazen and self-righteous, but along with her beauty and all other qualifications, it makes it look trivial. She lives in Hartfield with her father and her duenna, Miss Taylor, who became like one of them. However, after Emma introduces and matches her up with a gentleman named Mr. Weston, Miss Taylor marries and moves from there. Now she is Mrs. Weston. No matter how much Mr. Weston and Emma suffer from this separation, they have to put up with it for the sake of their friend's happiness. In fact, soon after Emma finds something else to be occupied with. Her new occupation, Miss Harriett Smith, is a young girl whose parents are unknown, but her heart is kind.

Emma is determined to turn her into an intelligent courteous lady with of good manners and match her with a suitable gentleman Emma herself is resolute about not getting married because she saw how sad her father was when her sister got married Then she knew she cannot leave her father After her father dies she would never need money and she would have a happy life with her friends This is probably the reason why she provides motivation for other girls to marry Emma embraces Harriet she facilitates it by endearing herself to other people around Harriet also has an aspirant son of the family that had adopted her once Mr Robert Martin Harriet finds her handsome and honest but Emma dissuades her for the reason that even if he is financially well off Emma does not deem his social sphere of Harriet s Thus she deters her easily A quite handsome and wealthy gentleman and an old family friend of Woodhouses Mr Knightley comes to know rejection as he is a close friend of Robert Martin He comprehends Emma has her hand in this business Immediately reaches to Emma to talk about this yet he obtains no result In fact no one but Mr Knightly has the courage to tell Emma her faults and warn Emma relishes his friendship still this time her opinion is that he is wrong Moreover Mr Knightley is the only one to sense what the future may bring Likewise everyone including Emma has no idea about the consequences of this tiny incident
