Entry 3 Sample Tasks Sample Paper 2

Please note: With the exception of the Task Sheet in Phase 2a, this sample test frame will be used only by the interlocutor. It will not be shown to the candidates.

⌚ 4 – 5 minutes

Phase 1a

Entry 3, Phase 1, Task 1

Hello. My name is _____ (interlocutor), and this is my colleague _____ (assessor).

[Ask Candidate A and Candidate B in turn questions about name and nationality (see below).]

Name	What's your name? Can you spell it for me?
Nationality	Where do you come from? How long have you lived here?

Thank you. Could I have your marksheets? [Collect marksheets and hand to assessor.] Thank you.

Now you are going to ask each other some questions. I want you to find out from each other about the food in Britain and the food in your country. You have three minutes to talk to each other.

[Withdraw eye contact to signal that candidates should start. Allow three minutes. Prompt candidates with questions from the box below, or others suitable for the level, if necessary (e.g. if interaction breaks down or if language remains below E3 level).]

Prompt questions:

Do you like the food here?

What food and drink have you tried in Britain? Did you like it?

What is your favourite food from your country?

Do you like to prepare your own meals or do you prefer to buy them ready-made? Why?

Thank you.

Examining Writing Stuart D. Shaw, Cyril J. Weir, 2007-07-05 Test developers need to provide a clear explication of the language ability constructs that underpin the tests they offer in the public domain such an explication is essential for supporting claims about the validity or usefulness of test scores This volume describes the theory and practice of Cambridge ESOL s approach to assessing second language writing ability A comprehensive test validation framework is used to examine the tasks in Cambridge ESOL writing tests from a number of different validity perspectives that reflect the socio cognitive nature of any assessment event The authors show how an understanding and analysis of the framework and its components can assist test developers to operationalise their tests more effectively especially in relation to the key criteria that differentiate one proficiency level from another The book provides an up to date review of relevant literature on assessing writing an accessible and systematic description of the different proficiency levels in second language writing a comprehensive and coherent basis for validating tests of writing This volume is a rich source of information on all aspects of examining writing ability As such it will be of considerable interest to examination boards who wish to validate their own writing tests in a systematic and coherent manner as well as to academic researchers and students in the field of language assessment more generally Book jacket

Intersectionality in Education Wendy Cavendish, Jennifer F. Samson, 2021 This book presents a framework for addressing intersectionality within educational spaces to combat the cumulative effects of systemic marginalization due to race gender disability class sexual orientation and other identity based labels Readers can use the framework to consider the impact of identities that individuals adopt or are assigned move beyond discrete subgroup labels and fully consider how such markers impact how education policy and research are developed enacted and experienced The text presents examples of existing systems education law medicine and juvenile justice as experienced by individuals with intersectional social identities Each chapter provides an innovative framework that highlights diverse ways of knowing generating insights that can inform more equitable policy analysis research and practice Book Features A protocol for applying an intersectionality based analytic IBA approach to education policy research and practice Case study examples of how IBA can be implemented to improve decision making across disciplines and by various stakeholders Guiding questions that can be used to develop complex research questions and methods that interrupt power differentials within research and policymaking processes Contributors Aydin Bal Aaron Bird Bear Patrice E Fenton Osamudia James Kristin W Kibler Dosun Ko Amie L Nielsen Linda Orie Leigh Patel Deborah Perez Kele Stewart

Chinese Students' Writing in English Maria Leedham, 2014-08-27 Chinese students are the largest international student group in UK universities today yet little is known about their undergraduate writing and the challenges they face Drawing on the British Academic Written English corpus a large corpus of proficient undergraduate student writing collected in the UK in the early 2000s this study explores Chinese students written assignments in English in a range of university disciplines contrasting these with assignments from British students The study is supplemented by questionnaire and interview datasets with discipline lecturers writing tutors and students and provides a comprehensive picture of the Chinese student writer today Theoretically framed through work within academic literacies and lexical priming the author seeks to explore what we know about Chinese students writing and to extend these findings to undergraduate writing more generally In a globalized educational environment it is important for educators to understand differences in writing styles across the student body and to move from the widespread deficit model of student writing towards a descriptive model which embraces different ways of achieving success Chinese Students Writing in English will be of value to researchers EAP tutors and university lecturers teaching Chinese students in the UK China and other English or Chinese speaking countries
