Circulation and Control Marie-Stéphanie Delamaire, Will Slauter, 2021-10-08 The nineteenth century witnessed a series of revolutions in the production and circulation of images From lithographs and engraved reproductions of paintings to daguerreotypes stereoscopic views and mass produced sculptures works of visual art became available in a wider range of media than ever before But the circulation and reproduction of artworks also raised new questions about the legal rights of painters sculptors engravers photographers architects collectors publishers and subjects of representation such as sitters in paintings or photographs Copyright and patent laws tussled with informal cultural norms and business strategies as individuals and groups attempted to exert some degree of control over these visual creations With contributions by art historians legal scholars historians of publishing and specialists of painting photography sculpture and graphic arts this rich collection of essays explores the relationship between intellectual property laws and the cultural economic and technological factors that transformed the pictorial landscape during the nineteenth century This book will be valuable reading for historians of art and visual culture legal scholars who work on the history of copyright and patent law and literary scholars and historians who work in the field of book history It will also resonate with anyone interested in current debates about the circulation and control of images in our digital age

Art, Agency and the Continued Assault on Authorship Simon Blond, 2022-10-31 This book presents a counter history to the relentless critique of the humanist subject and authorial agency that has taken place over the past fifty years It is both an interrogation of that critique and the tracing of an alternative narrative from Romanticism to the twenty first century which celebrates the agency of the artist as a powerful contribution to the wellbeing of the community It does so through arguments based on philosophical aesthetics and cultural theory interspersed with case histories of particular artists It also engages with a second issue that cannot be separated from the first This is the question of what the role and purpose of art is in society This has become particularly important since the 1990s because of the social turn in art in which it is claimed that the only valid role for art was one that had explicit social consequences This book argues that a political role for art is valuable but not the only one that can be envisaged nor indeed is it the most obvious or most important Art has other social roles both as a means to engender empathy and community and to re enchant a world bereft of meaning and reduced to material values The book will appeal to practising artists as well as scholars working in art history philosophy aesthetics and curatorial studies      Post-Exceptionalism Arne De

Boever,2025-01-31 Postmodernism has come and gone but the belief that artists and works of art are exceptional is alive and well Post Exceptionalism speculates that this is so because postmodernism when it declared the death of the author and celebrated the copy failed to name political theology as its fundamental target In a time when sovereignty is experiencing a dubious global revival the moment has come to reconsider the artist and the work of art after political theology in search for a new worldly and emancipatory politics of aesthetics      Subject, Society and Culture Roy Boyne,2008-03-25 This is a highly original indeed an extraordinary book standing out among the conventional philosophical treatments of subjectivity and reaching beyond the conventional area of investigation Boyne s feat is to find overlooked and unexplored angles which recast one of the perennial and ostensibly thoroughly familiar philosophical issues in a novel and fascinating light Zygmunt Bauman This book explores the relationships between visual culture social theory and the individual Visual culture has emerged as a central area of debate and research in contemporary sociology yet the field is still underdefined In particular the relationship between visual culture and the individual remains obscure Sociologists have insisted that all aspects of the individual are open to sociological explanation The result is that the individual sometimes seems to have been theorized away from sociological understanding Using a wide range of resources from Bourdieu s action theory and the contribution of actor network theory through to the artistic explorations of Francis Bacon and Barnett Newman this book shows how the concept of the individual is being reconstructed      Drifting - Architecture and Migrancy Stephen Cairns,2003-11-27 This book is an exploration of the often complex and unorthodox modes of dwelling that are emerging precisely from within the ruins of the idea of place      Germany 2007 Mary Beth Bohman,Ruth Craig,2006-12-01 Provides information on accommodations restaurants walking and driving tours sightseeing and shopping with information for Berlin and Eastern Germany

the Display of Ancient Egypt Alice Stevenson, 2025-01-16 Artistic interventions are now a popular means of delivering fresh perspectives on museum displays including in galleries devoted to ancient Egypt Installations are commonly said to put the past and present into dialogue with each other offering external critical voices on the work of decolonisation Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt argues that the contemporary and the ancient do not necessarily inform each other Instead they are mediated by and mediations of the museum that produces them Rather than explore how contemporary artists have been inspired by Egypt this book examines how they have shaped the language and discourse around study of the Egyptian past by looking at the wider field of public display in which both have been historically situated Building on this critical history of practice the book draws from experiments in bringing contemporary artistic sculptures conceptual pieces multimedia films sounds smells and performances into galleries at the British Museum in London the Egyptian Museum in Turin and the State Museum of Egyptian Art in Munich These are used to explore what contemporary art does in these spaces the motivations for inviting artists in and the legacies of those interventions It ends with a reflection on how academics and curators can be involved in the creative process and how artists contribute to academic research Praise for Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt This is an important and innovative study on the recent history of incorporating art installations in galleries of Egyptian antiquities Offering a thoughtful critical analysis of the ways in which contemporary art and ancient artefacts are juxtaposed in museum settings the book calls for a more nuanced and politically engaged practice of collaboration between artists and Egyptologists Stephanie Moser University of Southampton Archaeologist Alice Stevenson provides a thoughtful consideration of the goals and intent behind contemporary art interventions in exhibitions of ancient Egyptian art She challenges the curators scholars and museum professionals who design these exhibitions to move beyond the simplistic ancient art contemporary art juxtaposition and instead use contemporary art interventions to create spaces for both artistic and academic insight and inspiration I look forward to such dialogue Kara Cooney UCLA

The Shock of the New Robert Hughes, 2013-08-14 A beautifully illustrated hundred year history of modern art from cubism to pop and avant guard More than 250 color photos Art on the Block Ann Fensterstock, 2025-06-25 A fascinating tour of the last five decades of contemporary art in New York City showing how artists are catalysts of gentrification and how neighborhoods in turn shape their art with special insights into the work of artists such as Jean Michel Basquiat Cindy Sherman and Jeff Koons Stories of New York City's fabled art scene conjure up artists lofts in SoHo studios in Brooklyn and block after block of galleries in Chelsea But today no artist can afford a SoHo loft Brooklyn has long gentrified and even the galleries of Chelsea are beginning to move on Art on the Block takes the reader on a journey through the neighborhoods that shape and are shaped by New York's ever evolving art world Based on interviews with over 150 gallery directors as well as the artists themselves art historian and cultural commentator Ann Fensterstock explores the genesis expansion maturation and ultimate restless migration of the New York art world from one initially undiscovered neighborhood to the next Opening with the colonization of the desolate South Houston Industrial District in the late 1960s the book follows the art world's subsequent elopements to the East Village in the 80s Brooklyn in the mid 90s Chelsea at the beginning of the new millennium and most recently to the Lower East Side With a look to the newest neighborhoods that artists are just now beginning to occupy this is a must read for both art enthusiasts as well as anyone with a passion for New York City

Postmodernism in the visual arts is not just another ism It emerged in the 1960s as a transformation of artistic creativity inspired by Duchamp's idea that the artwork does not have to be physically made by its creator Products of mass culture and technology can be used just as well as traditional media This idea became influential because of a widespread naturalization of technology where technology becomes something lived in as well as used Postmodern art embodies this attitude To explain why Paul Crowther investigates topics such as eclecticism the sublime deconstruction in art and philosophy and Paolozzi's Wittgenstein inspired works

Workmanship Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 2012-12-13 today the name RKW Architektur Stadttebau evokes two hundred architects whose work never fails to convince The reason does not lie in the narrowly defined architectural language of individual leaders of the firm More than in any other firm the various teams are given generous latitude for independent initiative Thus this documentation of the last ten years with cross references to the development of this unique partnership since 1950 doesn't just present sixty five structures and projects from an internationally sought after firm On the contrary in its search for the secret of the firm's success it looks behind the scenes in numerous interviews and essays The works considered range from the research facilities for AUDI the new sciences campus of RWTH Aachen University and the corporate headquarters of Vodafone Debitel and Arag to urban revitalization projects residential buildings schools sports halls railroad stations city halls banks urban office buildings and shopping centers and the stadium for the 2012 European Soccer Championship in Gdansk
