Getting Started Clicker Training For Dogs English Edition:

Getting Started Karen Pryor, 2003 Positive Training for Happy Pets Helen Beal, Imagine a world where communication with your pet is effortless where training sessions are filled with joy and laughter and where your furry companion eagerly responds to your requests with enthusiasm This isn't a fantasy it's the reality that positive reinforcement training can unlock For too long traditional training methods focused on punishment and dominance often creating fear anxiety and a strained bond between pets and their owners Positive reinforcement flips the script emphasizing rewards motivation and positive communication It's about recognizing and reinforcing the good behavior you want to see creating a positive learning experience for your pet and strengthening your connection This book is your comprehensive guide to the world of positive training We'll explore the science behind animal learning understand the language of your pet and develop the skills to communicate effectively You'll learn to identify common behavioral issues create a positive training environment and use practical techniques to shape desired behaviors Whether you want to teach your dog basic commands address your cat's scratching habits or simply build a closer relationship with your pet Positive Training for Happy Pets will empower you with the tools and knowledge to create a happy fulfilling life for both you and your furry companion The Dog Trainers Resource 2 Mychelle Blake, 2008 The Dog Trainer's Resource 2 is made up of the best articles from award winning APDT's Chronicle of the Dog Each article stands alone and contains valuable professional development information for trainers and would-be trainers Learn about modern science-based motivational dog training from the best in the field Each article is written by an expert and covers an important aspect of working with dogs and people Also covers the business aspects of working with dogs When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway, 2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U.S. households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway's vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism The Donkey Companion Sue Weaver, 2012-08-22 Strong intelligent dependable friendly and extremely versatile donkeys are the perfect farm companion Whether you use your animal to pull carts till fields or protect livestock you ll benefit from this practical and inspirational guide to working with and caring for your donkey Providing expert advice on selecting the right breed for your needs daily maintenance training and first aid Sue Weaver also includes plenty of fun facts and charming donkey anecdotes Raise a happy and healthy donkey The Wiley Blackwell Handbook of Operant and Classical Conditioning Frances K.
