INTRODUCTION INTRODUCTION The Seabees of the United States Navy were born in the dark days following Pearl Harbor when the task of building victory from defeat seemed almost insurmountable The Seabees were created in answer to a crucial demand for builders who could fight Using sailors to build shore based facilities however was not a new idea Ancient Egyptians Phoenicians Greeks and Romans did it In more recent times from the earliest days of the United States Navy sailors who were handy with tools occasionally did minor construction chores at land bases After the 7 December 1941 Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the United States entry into the war the use of civilian labor in war zones became impractical Under international law civilians were not permitted to resist enemy military attack Resistance meant summary execution as guerrillas The need for a militarized Naval Construction Force to build advance bases in the war zone was self evident Therefore Rear Admiral Ben Moreell determined to activate organize and man Navy construction units On 28 December 1941 he requested specific authority to carry out this decision and on 5 January 1942 he gained authority from the Bureau of Navigation to recruit men from the construction trades for assignment to a Naval Construction Regiment composed of three Naval Construction Battalions This is the actual beginning of the renowned Seabees who obtained their designation from the initial letters of Construction Battalion Admiral Moreell personally furnished them with their official motto Construimus Batuimus We Build We Fight

Can Do! The Story of the Seabees William Bradford Huie, 2018-07-08 Born in the hellish aftermath of Pearl Harbor the Seabees began as barely armed civilians with no military training They had an average age of 35 GI s would joke Never hit a Seabee for his son might be a Marine America s bulldozing jungle hacking Jap cracking Construction Battalion or the Seabees C B s soon proved themselves miracle construction workers in seemingly impassable combat zones Before World War 2 Marines were the ones to get their first but the need for roads in the muddy battlefields of the Pacific meant that claim would pass to the Construction Battalion Their early motto was Can Do Seabee Combat Handbook Patrick J. Essinger, 1985 SEABEE Combat Handbook , 1989 Food in the American Military John C. Fisher, Carol Fisher, 2014-01-10 American soldiers and sailors have progressed from simple campfire and ship s deck cooking to today s nutritionally sound menu diverse high tech and ethnically correct feeding options This book describes in great detail the development of rations used by America s military war by war from the Revolutionary period to the present especially the challenges of preserving and transporting the food It discusses research into rations the evolution of the training of cooks and bakers and others and various methods of storage preparation and distribution of food Numerous first person accounts appear throughout Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Seabee Combat Handbook R.
