Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1983 Preparing Middle Level Educators for 21st Century Schools Penny B. Howell, Shawn A. Faulkner, Jeanneine Jones, Jan Carpenter, 2018-05-01 Over the last decade significant changes have occurred in how schools are organized how educators are prepared and certified how accreditation policies have shifted both curriculum and content as well as changes to the demographics of middle school classrooms This volume Preparing Middle Level Educators for 21st Century Schools Enduring Beliefs Changing Times Evolving Practices provides a review of current research focused on middle level educator preparation at all levels Our enduring beliefs about young adolescents have not changed e g need for developmentally responsive instruction caring adults who understand them and are prepared to teach them opportunities to explore their interests but the political and sociocultural climate of schools and schooling has In light of changing times this volume allows researchers and teacher educators to share research from their context and inform the evolving practices of educator preparation for the middle level The research presented in this volume is organized into three sections with an introduction

provided for each The authors grounded their work in the Association for Middle Level Education's teacher preparation standards 2012 and tenets of This We Believe NMSA 2010 By doing so they examine topics that hold potential for meeting the learning needs of teachers and students in middle level schools The first section includes chapters from individuals working to ensure that the enduring beliefs of middle level education continue to guide the structures of their middle level teacher preparation programs The second set of chapters closely examines how changing times are shaping the work of teacher educators Finally the last section spotlights evolving practices that continue to develop in response to the changes impacting our classrooms schools and communities This text provides readers with researched based practices and information to help them continue the tradition of middle level teacher education The enduring beliefs of preparing teachers who understand respect and honor the many talents gifts and contributions of the young adolescent student will guide teacher educators as they respond to the changing times of education and the evolving practices of teachers teacher educators and schools

Narrative Complexity Marina Grishakova, Maria Poulaki, 2019-08-01 The variety in contemporary philosophical and aesthetic thinking as well as in scientific and experimental research on complexity has not yet been fully adopted by narratology By integrating cutting edge approaches this volume takes a step toward filling this gap and establishing interdisciplinary narrative research on complexity Narrative Complexity provides a framework for a more complex and nuanced study of narrative and explores the experience of narrative complexity in terms of cognitive processing affect and mind and body engagement Bringing together leading international scholars from a range of disciplines this volume combines analytical effort and conceptual insight in order to relate more effectively our theories of narrative representation and complexities of intelligent behavior This collection engages important questions on how narrative complexity functions as an agent of cultural evolution how our understanding of narrative complexity can be extended in light of new research in the social sciences and humanities how interactive media produce new types of narrative complexity and how the role of embodiment as a factor of narrative complexity acquires prominence in cognitive science and media studies The contributors explore narrative complexity transmitted through various semiotic channels embedded in multiple contexts and experienced across different media including film comics music interactive apps audiowalks and ambient literature

Puppetry in Education and Therapy Edited by Matthew Bernier and Judith O'Hare, 2005-12-29 In Puppetry in Education and Therapy Unlocking Doors to the Mind and Heart one finds enormous variety ingenuity and creativity in the types of puppets and the ways they are used in education and in therapy Puppeteers therapists and educators articulate what is meant by puppetry in education and puppet therapy and how it is the same or different from puppet theatre They describe the unique characteristics and theory of puppetry in education and therapy the skills it takes to be successful in these areas the skills that are passed on to people who use puppets for personal expression and how to assess the impact of puppets on learning or behavior change Twenty six authors discuss topics such as puppetry and the multiple intelligences the process versus the product using puppetry in schools to promote literacy preserve cultural heritage and teach music how puppetry contributes to Core Curriculum Standards the theoretical underpinnings of therapeutic puppetry and a range of ways of facilitating growth and development If you re already using puppets this book will inspire you to understand your work differently and to explore new possibilities If you re a teacher or a therapist and you ve never used puppets before it will open a whole world of possibilities This book illustrates that puppetry arts can affect learning and behavior and that puppets indeed have the power to unlock doors to the mind and heart
