

presented. A typical narrative movement would be from a state of calm or equilibrium, to a state of disturbance or disruption, to a new state of peace or new equilibrium. The film I am going to analyse is Shallow Hal (Farrelly Brothers, 2001), which is an example of a romantic comedy.

Shallow Hal was given a PG certificate. It stars Jack Black as Hal and Gwyneth Paltrow as Rosemary. The sequence I have chosen to study is when the disruption takes place which continues throughout the majority of the rest of the film. The sequence opens with a series of clouds which have been speeded up to signify that time has passed. Events we do not need to see are left out with this compression of time. We see Hal in the context of a normal day at work. Tony Robbins is also present and is described as a TV guru. This is when the first disruption takes place. The lift suddenly stops and breaks down, with only Hal and Tony inside. Hal soon begins to panic and time is again fast-forwarded. This is indicated by the fast-moving clock. Hal describes his taste in women and after Tony has realised how shallow Hal is, he offers him hypnotism. Hal accepts. This a pivotal moment in the film, as the audience realises that Hal will not be the same again and the film's events will change after this point. To add tension, the background music of the elevator is mystical and goes with Tony's character and actions. The lift seems almost like a magical lamp, in which a genie (Tony) lives. Tony casts a spell over Hal and says: 'From this moment on, whenever you meet someone in the future, you're only going to see their inner beauty.'

From then on, Hal sees inner beauty in every woman he meets. This is presented in the film through a 'Hal's eye view' of the women. A difference between the central characters and their seeming incompatibility is essential within a romantic comedy. Hal is shallow and Rosemary is not the type of woman he would normally be interested in. The hurdle in this film, which the protagonists have to overcome, is Hal's shallow attitude. This scene is important, because it indicates an overcoming of the hurdle and makes the eventual romance between the characters of Hal and Rosemary possible. This sequence introduces the viewer to Rosemary who, through Hal's new eyes, is blonde, beautiful, slim and funny. In reality, Rosemary weighs 300 pounds, but is transformed by Hal's new, clearer vision.

Romantic comedies often exaggerate real-life situations for comic effect. In this film, Hal takes Rosemary out for lunch and her chair collapses. The chair is made of steel to exaggerate the comic effect. Hal is an extreme character who also offers comic exaggeration for the audience. He is often ridiculous and makes pathetic jokes. Shallow Hal fits into a new type of romantic comedy, which is more extreme and crass than films that have gone before. There's Something About Mary is another example of a 'romcom' which places its main characters in ridiculous scenarios.

The mise-en-scène of the film is colourful and happy. Although the prejudices which Hal has are quite extreme, the comedy element of the film is helped by the bright settings. The viewers know that they are watching a comedy and that eventually the problems of the narrative will be resolved.
