Genders, Sexualities, and Complexities in Africa Gabi Mkhize, Stanley Osezua Ehiane, Lupenga Mphande, 2025-02-20 This book's significance is in its African centred border crossing overt and covert forces working against genders and sexualities reinforcing endemic gender and sexual based complexities Pragmatically sexualities and genders in Africa remain contested and an area of power and control contestations in both the private and public spheres Gender based violence and femicide GBVF in particular continue to escalate particularly during the COVID 19 pandemic Such GBVF at most affects young women migrants LGBTIQIA people sex workers informal street traders and widows amongst others This is happening at a time when the feminist and women's movements in Africa are experiencing fragmentations and factions that pull and push organising to the margins of prejudice internally thereby exacerbating an act of subordinated inclusion In this context the term subordinated inclusion connotes another form of complexity where the subaltern has been brought inside a room as an act of inclusion yet systemically subordinated through structure and obedience thereby compromising agency This complexity occurs in private and public domains where a continuum of contestations between structure and agency is sustained Consequently power struggles emerge and proliferate unabated into gendered and sexualised complexities including relations of state coloniality apartheid prejudice marginalization capitalism and democracy This book thus strives to surface these contestations and complexities and how they continue to thrive in an era that seeks another way possible a way out a jump off a manner of dealing and an exit from the status quo AFCAT Topic-wise Solved Papers (2011-18) with 5 Practice Sets 4th Edition Disha Experts, The book covers all the AFCAT papers since its inception in 2011 In all a total of 14 papers are covered in the book The AFCAT Solved Papers from 2011 to 2018 are divided into 15 chapters This will help the students in understanding the importance of each and every chapter and will provide the know how that what kind of questions have come from the chapter The book is further empowered with 5 Practice Sets based on the exact pattern of latest AFCAT exams The book also provides an update on Current Affairs Home economics Sacha Hepburn, 2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa s post colonial and post apartheid history The Next Generation of Scientists in Africa Catherine Beaudry, Johann Mouton, 2018-11-23 Young scientists are a powerful resource for change and sustainable development as they drive innovation and knowledge creation However comparable findings on young scientists in various countries especially in Africa and developing regions are generally sparse Therefore empirical knowledge on the state of early career scientists is critical in order to address current challenges faced by those scientists in Africa This book reports on the main findings of a three and a half year international project in order to assist its readers in better understanding the African research system in general and more specifically its young scientists The first part of the book provides background on the state of science in Africa and bibliometric findings concerning Africas scientific production and networks for the period 2005 to 2015 The second part of the book combines the findings of a large scale quantitative survey and more than 200 qualitative interviews to provide a detailed profile of young scientists and the barriers they face in terms of five aspects of their careers research output funding mobility collaboration and mentoring In each case field and gender differences are also taken into account The last part of the book comprises conclusions and recommendations to relevant policy and decision makers on desirable changes to current research systems in Africa Handbook of Research on Promoting Peace Through Practice, Academia, and the Arts Lutfy, Mohamed Walid, Toffolo, Cris, 2018-09-07 Academic disciplines perceive tranquility and a sense of contentment differently among themselves and therefore contribute to peace building initiatives differently Peace is not merely a function of education or a tool that produces amicable systems but rather a concept that educational contributions can help societies progress to a more peaceful existence The Handbook of Research on Promoting Peace Through Practice Academia and the Arts aims to provide readers with a concise overview of proactive positive peace models and practices to counter the overemphasis on merely ending wars as a solution While approaching peace building through multiple vantage points and academic fields such as the humanities arts social sciences and theology this valuable resource promotes peace building as a cooperative effort This publication is a vital reference work for humanitarian workers leaders educators policymakers academicians undergraduate and graduate level students and researchers African Political Systems Revisited Aleksandar Bošković, Günther Schlee, 2022-04-08 Reexamining a classical work of social anthropology African Political Systems 1940 edited by Fortes and Evans Pritchard this book looks at the colonial and academic context from which the work arose as well as its reception and its subject matter and looks at how the work can help with analysis of current politics in Africa This book critically reflects upon the history of anthropology It also contributes to a political anthropology which is aware of its antecedents self reflexive as a discipline conscious of pitfalls and biases and able to locate itself in its academic social and political environment 11 Years AFCAT Topic-wise Solved Papers (01/ 2011 - 02/ 2021) with 5 Practice Sets 8th Edition Disha Experts, The thoroughly Updated 8th Edition of the book covers all the AFCAT papers since its inception in 2011 In all a total of 20 papers are covered in the book The AFCAT Solved Papers from 01 2011 Phase 1 2011 to 02 2021 Phase 2 2021 are divided into 15 Chapters Topics This will help the students in understanding the importance of each and every chapter and will provide the know how that what kind of questions have come from the chapter The book is further empowered with 5 Practice Sets based on the exact pattern of latest AFCAT exams The book also provides a collection of Current Affairs Questions Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i e development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1993 South Africa's water governance hydraulic mission (1912-2008) in a WEF-Nexus context Johann W.N. Tempelhoff, 2018-12-01 Geologists physicists and ecologists currently promote the idea of a post Holocene epoch the Anthropocene As a result of constant innovation and modernisation in the fields of engineering natural science management studies and environmental studies there has been a growing awareness of the intrinsic interaction between humankind and the environment Humankind has become part of the environmental dynamics to the extent that they are literally able to change ecosystems Nowhere is the impact more evident than in the anthropogenic engagement with the hydrosphere from the smallest pool of water to the earth's atmosphere Comprehensive infrastructure development in water and sanitation the growing trend to seek additional resources in the form of groundwater desalinated seawater and recycled wastewater as well as special attention being given to capturing and preserving rainwater bear evidence of a timely response to climate change population growth and rapid development in many water stressed regions of the world The purpose of the book is to provide a historical overview of the manner in which South Africa's water resources have been governed from a time when the Union of South Africa was formed in 1910 up to 2008 a time of a growing global awareness of the potential impact that climate change may have on water resources in a key region of southern Africa notable for increasing levels of aridity and more erratic rainfall patterns This focus on the history of water affairs in South Africa makes it possible for scholars to comprehend the contemporary transitions made in the country's water governance system since the establishment in 2014 of the Department of Water and Sanitation The focus is on the Water Energy Food nexus a strategy which holistically contemplates the governance and use of water from the perspective of the interconnection between water energy and food as resources Research Handbook on the Sociology of Knowledge Fran Collyer, 2025-07-15 This timely Handbook celebrates and contributes to the recent revitalisation of the sociology of knowledge A diverse group of leading experts from the global North and South provide a state of the art overview of a field which is developing rapidly with the growth of poststructuralist postcolonial and feminist approaches Global Visions of Violence Jason Bruner, David C. Kirkpatrick, 2022-12-09 In Global Visions of Violence the editors and contributors argue that violence creates a lens bridge and method for interdisciplinary collaboration that examines Christianity worldwide in the twentieth and twenty first centuries By analyzing the myriad ways violence persecution and suffering impact Christians and the imagination of Christian identity globally this interdisciplinary volume integrates the perspectives of ethicists historians anthropologists and ethnographers to generate new conversations Taken together the chapters in this book challenge scholarship on Christian growth that has not accounted for violence while analyzing persecution narratives that can wield data toward partisan ends This allows Global Visions of Violence to push urgent conversations forward giving voice to projects that illuminate wide and often hidden landscapes that have been shaped by global visions of violence and seeking solutions that end violence and turn toward the pursuit of justice peace and human rights among suffering Christians Textbook of Pediatric Rheumatology E-Book Ross E. Caste, Communication and Power Biswajit Das,Debendra Prasad Majhi,2021-07-12 Caste Communication and Power explores communication and the constitution of caste in Indian society Intimately connected both communication and caste are determined by historical developments The book looks at communication as a lens to study caste and power relations with its immense potential to shape perception and affect ground reality It also studies the evolution of the conceptual and theoretical foundations of caste and power relations and maps their emergence from communicative resources and practices These communication practices are inevitably linked to the social structure with their reliance on symbolic forms of self expression often revealing the underlying ideological attitudes The book studies this interface of culture and media evaluating the caste question and the associated power relations in terms of modes of communication practised in the society

Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo, 2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists engineers and architects all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world

Normativity and Diversity in Family Law Nadjma Yassari, Marie-Claire Foblets, 2021-11-21 With regard to family law this volume examines claims based on cultural tradition ethnic background custom religious affiliation and sexual orientation as well as various other claims that are not officially recognized in state law in 15 jurisdictions around the world The country reports seek to determine whether these claims represent a challenge to family law as conceived by the state and if so how these challenges are being managed The focus lies on the interaction between i claims and traditions raising minority related and diversity related issues and ii the state as the addressee of these demands for accommodation The reports identify specific instances and situations that have proven and in many cases still are particularly difficult to resolve They force decision makers to engage in a delicate balancing act between different often clashing interests
