Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell,2008 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity

Joyce's Finnegans Wake John P. Anderson,2008-07 This non academic author presents his key to opening James Joyce's famously difficult and endlessly playful novel Finnegans Wake The key was fashioned in Kabbalah an ancient Jewish mystical tradition that as interpreted by Joyce champions independent individualism as the path to the highest spirituality Kabbalah images a universe excreted by the ultimate god a universe that is necessarily finite and limited that came with its own secondary god that is finite and limited the god presented in Genesis that issues blessing and curses designed to make mankind fearful and dependent the curse of Kabbalah Joyce laid this curse in his dream like Book of the Night in the elastic way that the latent or hidden content of a dream distorts the presentation of dream materials Acting like a black hole this curse pressures the main character Harold Chimpden Earwicker to fall to become fearful and dependent just like everyone else that is reduced to the mere initials HCE for Here Comes Everybody Joyce traces this curse from the myths in Genesis to the primal horde the first social organization of humans to the Oedipal Complex and to nation state warfare such as the Battle of Waterloo In a groundbreaking presentation Anderson deciphers word by word the first two chapters and part of the last chapter to show how this key opens the lock He shows for example how the joined ending and beginning of Joyce's wisdom book form the Hebrew word for curse and the ending shows confrontation rather than repression of fear of death as the key to life to your own wake

Animal Behavior Ken Yasukawa, 2014-01-22 Discover why animals do what they do based on their genes physiologies cultures traditions survival and mating advantages and evolutionary histories and find out how studying behavior in the animal world helps us understand human behavior The three volumes of Animal Behavior How and Why Animals Do the Things They Do cover the breadth of the field addressing causation development function and evolution in a wide range of animals from invertebrates to humans Inspired by Nobel laureate Nikolaas Tinbergen's work the first two volumes follow Tinbergen's four classic questions of animal behavior while the third volume supplies integrated examples of Tinbergen's investigative process applied in specific cases Written in an engaging accessible manner ideal for college students as well as general audiences this evidence based collection provides a fascinating tour of animal behaviorists findings such as how animal communication can be truthful or deceitful the deadly serious business behind clashes in the battle of the sexes and how documentation of animal behavior can lead to a deeper understanding of human behavior Each chapter provides both historical background and information about current developments in animal behavior knowledge
