

READING COMPREHENSION

THE WILY COYOTE AND THE TALKING CACTUS

Reading Comprehension

Read the following text and answer the questions below.

In the vast landscapes of the Navaho Nation, where the sun paints the desert with hues of red and gold, there exists a timeless tale of wit and wisdom – the story of the Wily Coyote and the Talking Cactus.

Once upon a time, when the world was still young, Coyote roamed the desert in search of food and mischief. One scorching day, as he trotted across the sandy dunes, he encountered a peculiar sight – a cactus with a face carved into its trunk. To his surprise, the cactus spoke. "Greetings, Coyote. I have watched you play your tricks, and I offer you a challenge. If you can outwit me, I will share the secrets of the desert with you."

Coyote, known for his cleverness, rose to the challenge, equipped with a desire to know. The Talking Cactus presented a series of riddles, each more cunning than the last. Yet, with his quick thinking and clever nature, Coyote triumphed over each challenge.

However, as the final riddle was posed, the Talking Cactus revealed a lesson far deeper than the fabric of its words. "Coyote, wisdom is not just in outsmarting others, but in understanding the delicate balance of the desert. The secrets I offer are not for selfish gain but for enriching the harmony of our lands."

With a newfound respect, Coyote heeded the true wisdom of the Talking Cactus. The cactus, in turn, gifted him with a sacred seed that required careful cultivation. As Coyote nurtured the seed, he learned the value of patience and the importance of giving back to the land.

Through the years, the tale spread, and the Talking Cactus lived on in Navaho tradition, reminding each generation of the importance of wit tempered with wisdom and the quest to preserve the harmony of the natural world.

THE ENCHANTED RIVER

Reading Comprehension

Read the following text and answer the questions below.

Deep into the heart of Navaho Territory, there flowed a magical river known as the Enchanted River. It was said that the water possessed a shimmering glow, and the gentle murmur of its current carried the secrets of generations. This river was not just a waterway; it was a source of wisdom and magic for the Navaho Tribe.

The tale begins with two friends, Little Fox and Dancing Deer, who lived on opposite sides of the Enchanted River. Although the river was not wide, it was swift, and its hidden currents hid many secrets. Little Fox and Dancing Deer longed to play together and share stories, but the river stood as a barrier between them. One day, as the sun dipped below the horizon, a wise old Navaho man offered a solution to the friends' dilemma. "If you seek to cross this river, your friendship, I will grant you passage across my river."

Little Fox and Dancing Deer, determined to bridge the gap between them, embarked on a journey to find a gift that would please the river's spirit. Each faced challenges along the way, but through their courage and cooperation, Little Fox found a rare flower, while Dancing Deer discovered a magical seed.

When they returned to the Enchanted River, the river's spirit was moved by their offerings. In return, the river granted them a wish. They wished for a bridge that connected the two sides and a way to the river's source, a magical bridge that would allow them to cross.

From that day forward, the Enchanted River flowed gently, carrying the wishes of Little Fox and Dancing Deer's hearts. The friends played, they grew, and they shared the wisdom that they taught others along the way.
