Music by Claude-Michel Schönberg
Lyrics by Richard Maltby Jr. & Alain Boublil
Adapted from original French Lyrics by Alain Boublil

Slowly, with dignity

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is for the vocal line, and the lower staff is for the piano accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo/mood is indicated as 'Slowly, with dignity'. The system begins with a whole rest for the vocal line, followed by a melodic phrase starting on a G4. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal line has lyrics: "Thought when I've found I won't give a damn... but now I know I've caught the net-or-bait...". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

The third system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal line has lyrics: "What is it? It's you... what it looks... want you back out of here... your mind...". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

Directors and the New Musical Drama M. Lundskaer-Nielsen, 2008-04-14 This is one of the first books to offer a rigorous analysis of the enormous changes in the musical theatre during the 1980s and 90s. In addition, it focuses on the contribution of well-known serious theatre directors to the mainstream Musical Theatre, and it is the first book to offer a dual Anglo-American perspective on this subject.

Music Direction for the Stage Joseph Church, 2015 Theater music directors must draw on a remarkably broad range of musical skills. Not only do they conduct during rehearsals and performances, but they must also be adept arrangers, choral directors, vocal coaches, and accompanists. Like a record producer, the successful music director must have the flexibility to adjust as needed to a multifaceted job description, one which changes with each production and often with each performer. In Music Direction for the Stage, veteran music director and instructor Joseph Church demystifies the job in a book that offers aspiring and practicing music directors the practical tips and instruction they need in order to mount a successful musical production. Church, one of Broadway's foremost music directors, emerges from the orchestra pit to tell how the music is put into a musical show. He gives particular attention to the music itself, explaining how a music director can best plan the task of learning, analyzing, and teaching each new piece. Based on his years of professional experience, he offers a practical discussion of a music director's methods of analyzing, learning, and practicing a score, thoroughly illustrated by examples from the repertoire. The book also describes how a music director can effectively approach dramatic and choreographic rehearsals, including key tips on cueing music to dialogue and staging, determining incidental music, and underscoring, making musical adjustments and revisions in rehearsal, and adjusting style and tempo to performers' needs. A key theme of the book is effective collaboration with other professionals from the production team to the creative team to the performers themselves, all grounded in Church's real-world experience with professional, amateur, and even student performances. He concludes with a look at music direction as a career, offering invaluable advice on how the enterprising music director can find work and gain standing in the field.
