Conservation Across Borders Charles C. Chester, 2012-02-13 Conservationists have long been aware that political boundaries rarely coincide with natural boundaries From the establishment of early peace parks to the designation of continental migratory pathways a wide range of transborder mechanisms to protect biodiversity have been established by conservationists in both the public and private sectors Conservation Across Borders presents a broad overview of the history of transboundary conservation efforts and an accessible introduction to current issues surrounding the subject Through detailed examinations of two initiatives the International Sonoran Desert Alliance ISDA and the Yellowstone to Yukon Initiative Y2Y the book helps readers understand the benefits and challenges of landscape scale protection In addition to discussing general concepts and the specific experience of ISDA and Y2Y the author considers the emerging concept of conservation effectiveness and offers a comparative analysis of the two projects The book ends with a discussion of the complex relationships among civil society governments and international borders By considering the history goals successes and failures of two divergent initiatives the book offers important insights into the field of transborder conservation along with valuable lessons for those studying or working in the field Centennial Souvenir of the Marathi Mission of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions Alden Hyde Clark, 1888 Women and Missions ,1928

Melanie Klein's and Anna Freud's interventions in child therapy In doing so the book provides a necessary reframing of the work of Klein and Freud and their fractious disagreement about the interior life of the child and its object mediated manifestations     The Listener ,1929     A Century of Mission Work in Basutoland (1833-1933) Victor
