Empires: Infiltration Gavin Deas, 2014-11-20 This groundbreaking collaboration between two Gollancz authors tells of the invasion of Earth by two different alien races at the same time Two men become aware of the threat and must work to sabotage the invasion plans and see off the aliens Each book follows one hero uncovering the threat to humanity and the world from their point of view Each book can be read on its own and will give the reader a complete kinetic fast paced military SF story But read both books and the reader gets something else another view of some of the same events and crossover points culminating in a bloody battle at Canary Wharf The two books can be read in any order but together they tell the story of humanity caught in the crossfire between two deadly alien races who have made Earth their battleground Wanted! A Nation! Claire Bourhis-Mariotti,2023-12-15

Covering the whole of the nineteenth century Wanted A Nation reveals how Haiti remained a focus of attention for white as well as Black Americans before during and even after the Civil War Before the Civil War Claire Bourhis Mariotti argues the Black republic was considered by free Black Americans as a place where full citizenship was at hand Haiti was essentially viewed and concretely experienced as a refuge during moments when free Black Americans lost hope of obtaining rights in the United States Haiti is also at the heart of this book as Haitian leaders supported the American emigration to Haiti in the 1820s and early 1860s opposed the American geostrategic and diplomatic diktats in the 1870s and 1880s and finally offered an international platform to Frederick Douglass at the 1893 Columbian World's Fair thus helping Black people who faced discrimination at home to fight first against slavery and the slave trade and then for equal rights By spanning the entire nineteenth century Wanted A Nation presents a complex panorama of the emergence of African American identity and argues that Haiti should be considered as an essential prism to understand how African Americans forged their identity in the nineteenth century Drawing on a variety of sources Wanted A Nation goes far beyond the usual framework of national American history and contributes to the writing of an Atlantic and global history of the struggle for equal rights

Dolive, 2015-07-31 In March 2013 after seeing an advertising campaign for Victoria's Secret that was targeted especially to younger female demographics and much too sexy Evan Dolive a concerned father and ordained minister wrote an open letter calling for Victoria's Secret and other companies to view girls as human beings not objects What happened next was truly amazing His letter hit a nerve It was viewed numerous times 3.9 million times to be exact and Dolive was interviewed by national news publications and appeared on CNN and Headline News Dolive didn't want his 15 minutes to be in vain So he turned it into a labor of love Seeking Imperfection a book that's grounded in biblical insights stories reflection questions and prayers for anyone who believes in empowering children to grow up to value themselves for who they are Looking into the Seeds of Time Y. S. Brenner, 2021-12-16 This stunning refreshing work combines the history of economics and the practice of modern development It is predicated on Brenner's view that there is no individual freedom without economic security and that such security depends upon progress in both the natural and social sciences Social institutions determine the pace and direction of technological advancement and scientific and technological achievements determine which forms of social reorganization are possible and which are illusory As all living is action and living implies choices any theory of development must start with the person Economic laws obtain only in relation to specific forms of social existence Advanced societies are technically capable of providing for basic needs but are not yet convinced of their ability to do so Modern life still reflects the fears of a society still trying to escape the anxieties demons and ghosts of a long dark era of unemployment and starvation The problem of development is the contradiction between technological potentials and cultural inheritances Looking into the Seeds of Time was originally written with the belief that the growing mastery of nature by humanity would curb egoistic impulses and replace competitive with cooperative goals While the same spirit pervades this new edition the work reveals how political as well as economic processes make the goals of prosperity harder to achieve The work reveals a rare insight into the mechanisms of the marketplace and how they can be examined in a comparative historical context across nations as different as the United States Great Britain and Japan and from the Reformation to the modern era of bourgeois consolidation This is institutional economics at its very best Conflict & Challenges - Canada 1800-1850 Gr. 7 Solski, Ruth, Summers, Eleanor, Activities will help students analyze aspects of the lives of various groups in Canada between 1800 and 1850 and compare them to the lives of people in Canada in 1713 1800 Using the historical inquiry process students will be able to investigate perspectives of different groups on some significant events developments and or issues that affected Canada and or Canadians between 1800 and 1850 Students will describe various significant events developments and people in Canada between 1800 and 1850 and explain their impact Developed to make history curriculum accessible to students at multiple skill levels and with various learning styles The content covers key topics required for seventh grade history and supports the updated 2013 Ontario Curriculum History Grade 7 Topics are presented in a clear concise manner which makes the information accessible to struggling learners There are two levels of questions for each topic Illustrations maps and diagrams visually enhance each topic and provide support for visual learners The reading passages focus on the significant people and historic events that were important to Canadian history between 1800 and 1850 giving students a good overall understanding of this time period 48 Master the Facts game cards review content learned 88 pgs
