Women's Writing in Contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael

Worton, 2002 An up to date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts      Writing Resistance Laura R. Brueck, 2014-05-27 Writing Resistance is the first close study of the growing body of contemporary Hindi language Dalit low caste literature in India The Dalit literary movement has had an immense sociopolitical and literary impact on various Indian linguistic regions yet few scholars have attempted to situate the form within contemporary critical frameworks Laura R Brueck's approach goes beyond recognizing and celebrating the subaltern speaking emphasizing the sociopolitical perspectives and literary strategies of a range of contemporary Dalit writers working in Hindi Brueck explores several essential questions what makes Dalit literature Dalit What makes it good Why is this genre important and where does it oppose or intersect with other bodies of Indian literature She follows the debate among Dalit writers as they establish a specifically Dalit literary critical approach underscoring the significance of the Dalit literary sphere as a counterpublic generating contemporary Dalit social and political identities Brueck then performs close readings of contemporary Hindi Dalit literary prose narratives focusing on the aesthetic and stylistic strategies deployed by writers whose class gender and geographic backgrounds shape their distinct voices By reading Dalit literature as literature this study unravels the complexities of its sociopolitical and identity based origins      Contemporary Crisis Fictions E. Horton, 2014-07-08 This book offers a significant statement about the contemporary British novel in relation to three authors Graham Swift Ian McEwan and Kazuo Ishiguro All writing at the forefront of a generation these authors sought to resuscitate the novel's ethico political credentials at a time which did not seem conducive to such a project
