QUESTION 1

1. Read the story below twice. Answer the questions that follow:

Strength of mind and determination

- 1 An entrepreneur is someone who creates and runs her own business. Often an entrepreneur sees that there is something people need, that does not exist, and they will create what people need.
- 2 There are many young entrepreneurs in South Africa who have had brilliant ideas and started profitable companies. Here are two stories.
- 3 Nkile Monokhele grew up in a Kimberly township. After her first business and marriage failed, Nkile needed a new idea. She was interested in health and wanted to see how she could help people becoming healthier. Nkile went into townships to find out what people were using to flavour their food. Her idea was great, but the business nearly failed because she hadn't thought about how she would actually sell her product.
- 4 Once she found the right person to help her sell her product, Nkile's Herbs & Spices became popular and successful! Over time, Nkile's business grew and grew. She has now reached the international market.
- 5 "You should not let your past control your dreams. Repeat what works and change what doesn't. You need money, but you need strength of mind and determination more," advises Nkile.
- 6 Ludwick Marshane's idea came from his lady friend's problem. One day, Ludwick and his best friend were sunbathing in the scorching heat of Limpopo. Marshane's friend said, "Nkile, why doesn't somebody invent something that you can just put on your skin instead of having to bathe?" Marshane, 17 at the time, thought, "Yeah, why not?"
- 7 It took six months of research to develop an anti-bacterial lotion, that cleans cheaply and easily. DryBath was popular with many and solved a problem, especially for the 3.5 billion people worldwide who don't have proper access to water and sanitation.
- 8 Marshane hopes to change the world for the better. He stated that the greatest lesson he has learned is that everyone is learning. Every person is figuring it out, from the richest person to the poorest, and this is what makes life interesting.
