DAD

He never looks for praises,
He's never one to boast,
He just goes on working quietly
For the ones he loves the most.

His dreams are seldom spoken,
His wants are very few,
And most of the time his worries
Go unspoken, too.

He's there, a firm foundation,
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold onto
In stressful times of life.

A true friend we can turn to
When times are good or bad,
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that we call Dad.

*We love you,

Father's Day Matthew Zapruder, 2020-01-15 As seen in the The New York Times Book Review In characteristically short lines and pithy slippery language like predictive text from a lucid dream Zapruder's fifth collection grapples with fatherhood as well as larger questions of influence and inheritance and obligation The New York Times Zapruder presents powerfully nuanced and vivid verse about the limitations of poetry to enact meaningful change in a world spiraling into callousness yet despite poetry's supposed constraints Zapruder's verse offers solace and an invaluable blueprint for empathy Publishers Weekly starred review Zapruder's new book Father's Day is firmly situated in its and our political moment and is anchored by a compelling gravity and urgency The Washington Post The poems in Matthew Zapruder's fifth collection ask how can one be a good father partner and citizen in the early twenty first century Zapruder deftly improvises upon language and lyricism as he passionately engages with these questions during turbulent uncertain times Whether interrogating the personalities of the Supreme Court watching a child grow off into a distance or tweaking poetry critics and hipsters alike Zapruder maintains a deeply generous sense of humor alongside a rich vein of love and moral urgency The poems in Father's Day harbor a radical belief in the power of wonder and awe to sustain the human project while guiding it forward
