Fred Webb, 2000-01-01 This is the sequel to Home from the Hill, a bestseller if there ever was one. Fred Webb once commented on his marriage by saying, "Irene and I had the typical teenage marriage that wasn't supposed to last six months. I guess the secret is that out of the past forty years I have been away about thirty-five of them. And away from home he has been first as a radio operator in the remote North, then as a lumberjack, and later yet as a sailor. Eventually he became a full-time guide traveling all over the Arctic, guiding for the great game of the North: caribou, moose, polar bear, muskox, and grizzly. In these pages you will find the same irresistible attraction you did in Fred's earlier writings, for he truly is a masterful storyteller. Let Fred royally entertain you with his wild hunting tales and his adventurous vagabond existence; we guarantee this to be one book you'll have a hard time putting down." Fred, a master storyteller whose stories have been praised time and time again, is in the press rates as one of the best sporting writers alive today. The Fisherman's Guide to Maine
