Pilgrims and Pilgrimages as Peacemakers in Christianity, Judaism and Islam Antón M. Pazos, 2016-04-08 Pilgrimages can be analysed as acts of conflict such as the Crusades or also as platforms for relationship building and rapprochement between religions With a set of contributions from leading experts in the field this book explores the concept of pilgrimage in Christianity Judaism and Islam Some specific examples of pilgrimages that helped to strengthen links between different religions or civilisations are explored ranging from Europe to Asia and from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century Even though every pilgrimage that is investigated here has helped to link different worlds the case studies show that this relationship rarely led to a better inter understanding Nowadays peaceful coexistence seems to be its greatest achievement

Drawing the Line Juliet Fall, 2017-11-30 This book provides the first comprehensive and critical examination of the spatial assumptions underpinning transboundary protected areas in Europe at a time of surging global enthusiasm in creating and managing such areas It explores how the reliance on the natural science approach to space within environmental planning has led to a return of exclusionary discourses in paradoxical contrast to the stated claims of designing peace parks The book builds a much needed link between the critical geopolitical literature on boundaries and social approaches to nature and hybridity Drawing the Line is theoretically informed yet grounded in substantial fieldwork from sites in France Germany Italy Poland Romania Slovakia and the Ukraine It uses material from the field to build and question theoretical debates moving beyond site specific issues to wider patterns and trends
