Lautreamont And Sade:

Lautréamont and Sade Maurice Blanchot, 2004 In this book Blanchot forcefully distinguishes his critical project from the major intellectual currents of his day surrealism and existentialism Lautréamont and Sade Maurice Blanchot, 2004 In this book Blanchot forcefully distinguishes his critical project from the major intellectual currents of his day surrealism and existentialism Lautréamont Et Sade Maurice Blanchot, 1969 The Eroticization of Distance Joseph D.

Kuzma, 2016-07-26 In The Eroticization of Distance Nietzsche Blanchot and the Legacy of Courtly Love Joseph D Kuzma explores the significance of courtly erotic themes in Friedrich Nietzsche's mature philosophy and in Maurice Blanchot's writings of the 1940s and early 1950s Rather than offering an account of erotic relationality that prioritizes reconciliation fulfillment or release Nietzsche attempts to formulate a nonteleological eroticism that aims at nothing but the perpetual intensification of desire Kuzma suggests that it is Blanchot who carries Nietzsche's courtly erotic tendencies to their most provocative point by highlighting potentials for intimate relationality that might be established through a shared experience of dispossession and loss This first monograph to engage specifically with the theme of eroticism in Blanchot's writings will be of interest not only to students and scholars of Nietzsche Blanchot or French philosophy but also anyone interested in the philosophy of sexuality the history of love theories of the emotions or nineteenth and twentieth century European thought more generally Lautréamont's Imagery Peter W. Nesselroth, 1969 Sade's Philosophical System in its Enlightenment Context Henry Martyn Lloyd, 2018-09-05 This book connects the philosophy of the Marquis de Sade one of the most notorious iconic and yet poorly understood figures within the history of European thought with the broader themes of the Enlightenment Rather than seeing himself as a mere pornographer Sade understood himself as continuing the progressive tradition of French Enlightenment philosophy Sade aspired to be a philosophe This book uses intellectual history and the history of philosophy to reconstruct Sade's philosophical system and its historical context Within the period's discourse of sensibility Sade draws on the philosophical and the literary to form a relatively sophisticated system which he deploys to critically engage with the two major strands of eighteenth century ethical theory the moral sense and natural law traditions This work is of interest to Continental Philosophy Critical Theory French Studies the History of Eighteenth Century

Philosophy Literary Studies the History of Moral Philosophy and Enlightenment Studies Remains of a Self Cathrine Bjørnholt Michaelsen, 2021-06-29 From the twentieth century in the twenty first psychoanalysis and deconstruction have challenged and continue to challenge our conceptions of subjectivity and selfhood Psychoanalysis revealed that even in our innermost households we are never quite alone rather instances of otherness incessantly interfere in our most intimate relation to ourselves forcing us to adapt continuously Deconstruction inheriting both this psychoanalytic disclosure and Heidegger's destruction of the history of metaphysics went to the foundations of the Western constructions of the subject and the self only to find how a destabilizing otherness was always already haunting them What if anything remains of the self in the aftermath Early on in the wake of deconstruction a certain misconceived and simplified notion of the death of the subject was proclaimed and in recent years more or less successful attempts have been made at reviving the notions of the subject the self and agency In contrast to these attempts at revival this book offers a two pronged approach On the one hand it argues that neither psychoanalysis nor deconstruction propounds a simple annihilation of the subject or liquidation of the self on the other hand however neither do they pave the way for a return to the subject or resurrection of the self that would allow us once again to become confident about our presence to ourselves Instead this book suggests that if we set ourselves the task of taking up the heritage from psychoanalysis and deconstruction in a serious manner we are obliged to retrace the subject and the self as undergoing perpetual auto deconstruction Juan Goytisolo and the Poetics of Contagion Stanley Black, 2001-01-01 Elizabeth A Kaye specializes in communications as part of her coaching and consulting practice She has edited Requirements for Certification since the 2000 01 edition Lautréamont e Sade Maurice Blanchot, 1974

Post-fascist Fantasies Julia Hell, 1997 Employing an approach informed by Slavoj Žižek's work on the Communist's sublime body and by British psychoanalytic feminism's concern with feminine subjectivity Hell first examines the antifascist works by exiled authors and authors tied to the resistance movement She then strives to understand the role of Christa Wolf the GDR's most prominent author in the GDR's effort to reconstruct symbolic power after the Nazi period
