Pacific Chilla Bulbeck, 2008-10-27 Sex love and feminism are three aspects of the rapidly changing gender relations that shape young people's lives in the Asia Pacific region. Much has been written about rapidly changing countries in Asia, most recently China and India. With the global spread of capitalist production and neo-liberal ideologies, the claim that the rest of the world's women are treading the path to enlightenment and development forged by women in the West has been revived. This book explores that contention through a comparative analysis of the attitudes of young middle-class urbanites in ten countries: the USA, Australia, Canada, Japan, Thailand, South Korea, India, Indonesia, China, and Vietnam. Drawing on detailed empirical research, the study describes and compares attitudes towards the women's movement, sexual relations, and family arrangements in the countries considered. It explores young people's image of feminists and what they feel the women's movement has achieved for women and men in their country. The book discusses young people's attitudes to controversial gender issues such as role reversal, sharing housework, abortion rights, same-sex sexual relations, nudity, and pornography. Through a comparative analysis of the gender vocabularies by which young people understand gender issues, the book highlights the role of differences in history, culture, economics, and political leadership. These influence attitudes to gender relations, the status of women, and the political programs of the women's movement in different countries. Whilst there are striking parallels between countries, and even across the whole sample, those similarities do not fall neatly into a simple dichotomy of the West versus the rest.

Physics, Metaphysics, and God - Third Edition Jack W. Geis, 2010-07-15 At long last, a promising dialogue between science and medicine has begun. A focal point of this discussion is healing and how it happens. Jack W. Geis shows how modern physics and spirituality are centrally involved in this debate. No one who is interested in the current interface between science, spirituality, and medicine can afford to neglect his ideas. Larry Dossey, MD, Author, Healing Beyond the Body and Healing Words: The Power of Prayer and the Practice of Medicine. This book introduces some of the most perplexing and exciting aspects of the revolution going on in physics today as it continues toward an increasingly metaphysical basis for defining reality. This exciting scientific revolution should be shared by everyone, and the issues taken up in this book form a basis for that participation. That the math is not in the chalk is becoming increasingly evident, as well as the question as to which is more substantial. Dr. Laurance R. Doyle, Astrophysics and Planetary Science Center for the Study of Life in the Universe, SETI Institute.
