Love Simon May, 2019-06-18 What is love May plunders Western poetry philosophy and psychology to find answers Thought provoking stuff The Sunday Telegraph Love unconditional selfless unchanging sincere and totally accepting is worshipped today as the West's only universal religion To challenge it is one of our few remaining taboos In this path breaking and superbly written book philosopher Simon May does just that dissecting our ideas of love and showing how they are the product of a long and powerful cultural heritage Tracing over twenty five hundred years of human thought and history May shows how our idea of love developed from its Hebraic and Greek origins alongside Christianity until during the last two centuries God is love became love is God so hubristic so escapist so untruthful to the real nature of love that it has booby trapped relationships everywhere with deluded expectations Brilliantly May explores the very different philosophers and writers both skeptics and believers who dared to think differently from Aristotle's perfect friendship and Ovid's celebration of sex and the chase to Rousseau's personal authenticity Nietzsche's affirmation Freud's concepts of loss and mourning and boredom in Proust Against our belief that love is an all powerful solution to finding meaning security and happiness in life May reveals with great clarity what love actually is and what it means The most persuasive account of love's nature I have ever read Financial Times Intellectually engaging Provocative The Wall Street Journal God and Eros Colin Patterson, Conor Sweeney, 2015-10-12 What can God and eros have to do with each other Against Nietzsche's claim that Christianity poisoned eros God and Eros rereads the mystery of human love as an ecstatic sharing in the mystery of the triune God who is Love Body sex and affectivity far from being locked in a lower order called nature instead belong to a sacramental order that is permeated by the call to love In presentations designed to appeal to a general audience the faculty of the John Paul II Institute for Marriage and Family Melbourne approach this mystery through the lens of St John Paul II's theology of the body with the goal to both introduce and more clearly illumine its major features In particular emphasis is placed on how a theology of the body is not just about sex Rather it is above all about how each and every person no matter what her state of life is stamped by the watermark of being from and being for Working within this broader perspective God and Eros offers the reader a lively engaging and at times challenging tour of the full ethos of the nuptial mystery

Suffering Mark Giszczak, 2024-02-28 Just as Job was tried all of us are tested by suffering It comes to us in many different forms grief about the past pain in the present and sadness about what might have been The personal dimension of suffering means that it marks our experience and in some ways makes us who we are Coping with suffering as Christians includes certain spiritual practices that lead us to surrender our lives more fully to the Lord By offering our suffering as a spiritual sacrifice joined intentionally to the suffering of Christ through prayer we engage with the most profound Christian teaching about suffering that it is redemptive Suffering can transform us to be like God Daily Meditations Jalal Gharfeh, 2019-08-23 The world speaks what the mind thinks Grace reveals and transforms When the light shines everything else disappears The earth and heaven declare his glory Only man can block him from his sight What distinguishes man from all creation can be his downfall The treasure is in everyone Few choose to uncover dissolve and live it God is love incarnated in the Christ We are his incarnated flesh and blood to be shared with the hungry thirsty and weary Who are we otherwise What else are we here for To be him is not a question Not to be is not really an option Death is not a choice Every moment in your life is a constant reminder Insights like these quick concise and to the point make up the bulk of this book In the age of Facebook and text messaging who has the time or stamina to wade through long scholarly treatises They are shared to lead to the Spirit that dwells within everyone Once the reader is there it does the rest One taste would lead to the road of no return More questions than answers are provided intended to wake readers up from ordinary thinking and then lure them to go deeper into their souls No systematic thesis is presented or intended nor a consistent approach followed just glimmerings shining through the clouds of the mind The words that may touch the soul are not mine Mine are those that stand in the way The rational mind perceives infinite versions of reality Only through the spirit of God does love reveal itself Words are just words It is the Spirit through them that saves and transforms to the likeness of the Christ Man has failed to work out his salvation That is why he came Salvation through his blood is done completed and at hand Just let his hand lead Too simple for the mind to believe You need to trust like a child and follow like a lamb This is the recurring theme of this book explored from many directions There is no other love worth living for Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1878 The
