Uganda Confidential ,1999 Promoting Gender Equity in Selected Public Universities of Kenya Jane Onsongo,2011 The purpose of this study was to examine sustainable gender equity interventions in selected public universities The study used descriptive survey and case study research methods to carry out an in depth analysis of the gender equity interventions in selected public universities in Kenya The sample consisted of four public universities that were selected because they had established gender centers institutes that were assumed to be coordinating gender equity intervention The study has the following objectives To establish the existing gender inequalities in the formal organisational structure of the selected universities To identify and assess sustainability of gender equity interventions in the selected public universities To analyse the national regional international and organisational culture and policy contexts that have influenced and supported the introduction of the identified gender equity interventions To investigate the attitudes of staff students and management towards the gender equity interventions and to recommend appropriate institutional strategies to address existing gender inequities Scholars in the Marketplace. The Dilemmas of Neo-Liberal Reform at Makerere University, 1989-2005 Mahmood Mamdani,2007 Scholars in the Marketplace is a case study of market based reforms at Uganda s Makerere University With the World Bank heralding neoliberal reform at Makerere as the model for the transformation of higher education in Africa it has implications for the whole continent At the global level the Makerere case exemplifies the fate of public universities in a market oriented and capital friendly era The Makerere reform began in the 1990s and was based on the premise that higher education is more of a private than a public good Instead of pitting the public against the private and the state against the market this book shifts the terms of the debate toward a third alternative than explores different relations between the two The book distinguishes between privatisation and commercialisation two processes that drove the Makerere reform It argues that whereas privatisation the entry of privately sponsored students is compatible with a public university where priorities are publicly set commercialisation financial and administrative autonomy for each faculty to design a market responsive curriculum inevitably leads to a market determination of priorities in a public university The book warns against commercialisation of public universities as the subversion of public institutions for private purposes Thirty Years of Public Sector Reforms in Africa Paulos Chanie,Paschal B. Mihyo,2013 Over the past three decades African countries have been reforming their public sector with a view to improving efficiency effectiveness accountability and transparency as part of efforts to improve the delivery of public services Reform actions have included privatisation public private partnerships commercialisation and adoption of private sector approaches in managing public organisations This book put together by OSSREA reviews measures by African countries in that regard the extent to which the measures have achieved their intended results as well as the factors behind the failure to achieve those results where this was the case The Development of Tertiary Education in the Eastern African Region Isabella M.

Musyoka-Kamere, Daniel Namusonge Sifuna, Kisilu Kombo, 2023-11-16 This book gives a riveting account of the higher education advancements made in five East African countries each presenting unique characteristics While some of the countries enjoyed relative calm throughout their years of growth and development others have endured a turbulent past marked by civil war coups and other forms of unrest including one of the most atrocious genocide events ever recorded in the history of mankind It is a known fact that the past defines the present and describes the future The book specifically tracks the historical development of teacher education technical and vocational education and training and university education in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi The extensive research and up to date accounts provide a rich overview of tertiary education in the five countries with candid reviews of the past the current situation and perspectives on the future The book is a refreshing addition to the books of history and education and a must read for students professionals and policy makers in the field of higher education as well as scholars of history Ghana Law Since Independence, 2007 Tradition and Transition Philip G. Altbach, 2007-01-01 A global and comparative perspective is central to understanding the rapidly changing world of higher education Tradition and Transition analyzes many of the key themes of academic change in the 21st century It brings a unique comparative approach citing examples from many national contexts to illustrate themes Among the topics considered are the logic of mass higher education globalization and inequality the role of research universities academic freedom private higher education and the academic profession and its problems These topical chapters are accompanied by in depth discussions of Asia and Africa Becoming an African University Carol Sicherman, 2005 For four decades Makerere University known as the Oxford of Africa was the sole university level institution in all of East Africa A fabled Mecca for aspiring youth it trained many of the region's first generation of intellectual and political leaders including the present presidents of Kenya and Tanzania It remains one of Africa's most important universities today As one of the first comprehensive look at an African university this book tells the story of Makerere's colonial beginnings its efflorescence during the 1950s and 1960s its calamitous decline during nearly two decades of tyranny and civil war and its resurgence following the restoration of peace and relative stability African Higher Education Damtew Teferra, Philip G. Altbach, 2003-10-02 This book is a comprehensive survey of all aspects and dimensions of higher education in Africa New Encyclopedia of Africa John Middleton, 2008 Contains a collection of alphabetically arranged entries from Dakar to Hydrology on the history geography culture religion and ideologies wars and economy of the African nations and includes essays and photographs A Giant Tree has Fallen Seifudein Adem, Jideofor Adibe, 2016-09-01 This book memorialising the life and work of Ali Alamin Mazrui comprises more than 130 tributes written by people ranging from heads of state to journalists Presented here are those tributes for which copyright permissions were received from among the hundreds that appeared online and print In preparing this book it was made very clear that unlike other books of tributes to great men and women there would be no segmentation of the sections based on writers and speakers positions in life Instead it was decided that the tributes be presented in alphabetical order based on writers and speakers last names The decision hinged on the fact that Mazur would not have apposed any segmentation of people by class race ethnicity and gender etc Nonetheless out of great respect for Mazurs immediate family members their tributes are presented first followed by those from his global family members Also included at the beginning of the book are three chapters that comprise an introductory essay a brief biography of Mazur and an essay on metaphorical linguistic analysis of the tributes that follow The book also has a preface by the coeditors and a forward by Salim Ahmed Salim the former Prime Minister of the United Republic of Tanzania and Secretary General of the Organisation of African Unity OAU now known as the Africa Union Dr Salim who served as the Secretary General of the OAU from 1989 to 2001 was Mazuris friend and contemporary Mazruri once described Salim as Mr Africa and the first real postcolonial Secretary General of the OAU Promises and Realities African Centre for Technology Studies,African Women and Child Feature Service,2009 Accompanying DVD entitled Gender issues in the Kenyan society
