Janice Marcuccilli Strop, Jennifer Carlson, 2011-02-02 Today's multimedia, multimodal world necessitates literacy instruction that includes a variety of text forms such as film, print, music, Internet photographs. Strop and Carlson provide all types of learners with the lifelong tools they need to explore and interpret texts. This book will help teachers and students reach beyond printed texts to expand perspectives, understand different text forms and genres, make intertextual connections, and transcend strategy-based instruction. Multimedia Text Sets includes ideas for explicit teaching of how to read different forms and genres of texts, real stories which demonstrate the power of multiple literacies from three teachers who incorporate multimedia text sets in their classrooms, engaging ideas for instruction you can use to help develop your own students' reading/writing practices with a variety of text forms, practical suggestions on how to create your own multimedia text sets. Contributors to this book are Holly Dionne, Richard Kuhn, and Stephanie Reid. Making Meaning Developmental Studies Center (Oakland, Calif.), 2003 Guiding Readers Lori Jamison Rog, 2012 Discover a model for guided reading instruction that fits the 18-minute time frame and is purposeful, planned, and focused. This practical book introduces a range of specific reading strategies and processes that lead students to access increasingly sophisticated text. It includes collections of lessons for emergent, early-developing, and fluent readers as well as struggling readers in the upper grades. Detailed and comprehensive, the book champions an integrated system of guiding readers that involves both fiction and nonfiction as well as the texts that surround students in and out of school, websites, directions, instructions, schedules, signs, and more. New and experienced teachers will both find a wealth of valuable, reproducible techniques, tips, and strategies that will help them put the tools for independent reading into the hands of every student.
