Making Middle Sea Cyprian Broodbank:

The Making of the Middle Sea Cyprian Broodbank, 2024-11-19 An award winning history of the Mediterranean from prehistory to the Classical world reissued with an extended new preface by the author For millennia the Mediterranean has been one of the global cockpits of human endeavor World class interpretations exist of its classical and subsequent history but there has been remarkably little holistic exploration of how its societies culture and economies first came into being despite the fact that almost all the fundamental developments originated well before 500 BCE The Making of the Middle Sea offers a full interpretive exploration into the rise of the Mediterranean world from its beginning before the emergence of our own species up to the threshold of classical times Extensively illustrated and ranging across disciplines subject matter and chronology from early humans and the origins of farming and metallurgy to the rise of civilizations Egyptian Levantine Hispanic Minoan Mycenaean Phoenician Etruscan early Greek the book is a masterpiece of archaeological and historical writing Now featuring a new preface exploring the most recent archaeological research on the Mediterranean world Winner of the Wolfson Prize for History in 2014 Phoenicians and the Making of the Mediterranean Carolina

López-Ruiz, 2022-01-04 Long before Greeks dominated the ancient Mediterranean Phoenicians were the lords of the sea Setting out from their Levantine cities they introduced their alphabet art technology and gods to places as far as off as Iberia Carolina L pez Ruiz highlights the enduring Phoenician imprint displacing the Hellenocentric model of the ancient world

How to Be Adam Nicolson, 2023-10-17 Nicolson crafts a geography of the ancient world and a brilliant exploration of our connections to the past What is the nature of things What is justice How can I be myself How should we treat each other Before the Greeks the idea of the world was dominated by god kings and their priests Twenty five hundred years ago in a succession of small eastern Mediterranean harbor cities a few heroic men and women decided to cast off mental subservience and apply their own thinking minds to the conundrums of life These great innovators shaped the beginnings of western philosophy Through the questioning voyager Odysseus Homer explored how we might navigate our way through the world Heraclitus in Ephesus was the first to consider the interrelatedness of things Xenophanes of Colophon was the first champion of civility On the Aegean island of Lesbos the early lyric poets Sappho and Alcaeus asked themselves How can I be true to myself On Samos Pythagoras imagined an everlasting soul and took his ideas to Italy where they flowered again in surprising and radical forms The award winning writer Adam Nicolson travels with us through this transforming world and asks what light these ancient thinkers can throw on our deepest preconceptions Enhanced with maps photographs and artwork How to Be is an expedition into early ideas Nicolson takes us to the dawn of investigative thought and makes the fundamental questions of the ancient philosophers new again What are the principles of the physical world How can we be good in it And why do we continue to ask these questions It is an enthralling exhilarating journey Across the

to the Ancient Eastern Mediterranean reframes current discussions of the Mediterranean world by rereading the past with new methodological approaches The work asks readers to consider how future studies might write histories of the Mediterranean moving from the larger pan Mediterranean approaches of The Corrupting Sea towards locally oriented case studies Spanning from the Archaic period to the early Middle Ages contributors engage the pioneering studies of the Mediterranean by Fernand Braudel through the use of critical theory GIS network analysis and postcolonial cultural inquiries Scholars from several time periods and disciplines rethink the Mediterranean as a geographic and cultural space shaped by human connectivity and follow the flow of ideas ships trade goods and pilgrims along the roads and seascapes that connected the Mediterranean across time and space The volume thus interrogates key concepts like cabotage seascapes deep time social networks and connectivity in the light of contemporary archaeological and theoretical advances in order to create new ways of writing more diverse histories of the ancient world that bring together local contexts literary materials and archaeological analysis

The Golden Road William Dalrymple, 2025-04-29 The internationally bestselling author of The Anarchy returns with a sparkling soaring history of ideas tracing South Asia's under recognized role in producing the world as we know it For a millennium and a half India was a confident exporter of its diverse civilization creating around it a vast empire of ideas Indian art religions technology astronomy music dance literature mathematics and mythology blazed a trail across the world along a Golden Road that stretched from the Red Sea to the Pacific In The Golden Road William Dalrymple draws from a lifetime of scholarship to highlight India's oft forgotten position as the heart of ancient Eurasia For the first time he gives a name to this spread of Indian ideas that transformed the world From the largest Hindu temple in the world at Angkor Wat to the Buddhism of China from the trade that helped fund the Roman Empire to the creation of the numerals we use today including zero India transformed the culture and technology of its ancient world and our world today as we know it

The Voice of the People? Wim Blockmans, 2024-01-31 Over the last two centuries Europe has developed various forms of political representation from which democratic parliamentary systems gradually emerged This book unravels the conditions scale and impact under which political participation of common burghers and peasants emerged Political participation in Europe before the Revolutions moved away from the traditional focus on Three Estates which has often blurred the interpretation of popular participation's role in societies This book instead examines Europe's key political variants such as high levels of commercialization and urbanization combined with a balance of powers between competing categories of actors in society controlling relatively independent resources which lead to political participation forming across the continent Instead of starting from any ideal type of political participation this book focuses on the variation through time and space its composition and activity helps to explain the functions particular institutional settings fulfilled The time frame 1100-1800 sheds light on the long term evolutions such as institutional inertia and processes of oligarchizing To reveal a correlation of economic and demographical growth with the claim of rising social classes to voice their interests It also points to the opposite tendency the formation of fiscalmilitary monarchical states This book is essential reading for those interested in the formation of Europe s political structures and students of premodern political history

How the World Made the West Josephine Quinn, 2024-09-03 An award winning Oxford history professor makes a forceful argument and tells a story with great verve The Wall Street Journal that the West is and always has been truly global Those archaic Western Civ classes so many of us took in college should be updated argues Quinn who invites us to revel in a richer more polyglot inheritance The Boston Globe AN ECONOMIST BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR LONGLISTED FOR THE CUNDILL HISTORY PRIZE In How the World Made the West Josephine Quinn poses perhaps the most significant challenge ever to the civilizational thinking regarding the origins of Western culture that is the idea that civilizations arose separately and distinctly from one another Rather she locates the roots of the modern West in everything from the law codes of Babylon Assyrian irrigation and the Phoenician art of sail to Indian literature Arabic scholarship and the metalworking riders of the Steppe to name just a few examples According to Quinn reducing the backstory of the modern West to a narrative that focuses on Greece and Rome impoverishes our view of the past This understanding of history would have made no sense to the ancient Greeks and Romans themselves who understood and discussed their own connections to and borrowings from others They consistently presented their own culture as the result of contact and exchange Quinn builds on the writings they left behind with rich analyses of other ancient literary sources like the epic of Gilgamesh holy texts and newly discovered records revealing details of everyday life A work of breathtaking scholarship How the World Made the West also draws on the material culture of the times in art and artifacts as well as findings from the latest scientific advances in carbon dating and human genetics to thoroughly debunk the myth of the modern West as a self made miracle In lively prose and with bracing clarity as well as through vivid maps and color illustrations How the World Made the West challenges the stories the West continues to tell about itself It redefines our understanding of the Western self and civilization in the cosmopolitan world of today

Hall, James F. Osborne, 2022-12-09 An interdisciplinary consideration of how eastern Mediterranean cultures in the first millennium BCE were meaningfully connected The early first millennium BCE marks one of the most culturally diverse periods in the history of the eastern Mediterranean Surveying the region from Greece to Iraq one finds a host of cultures and political formations all distinct yet all visibly connected in meaningful ways These include the early polities of Geometric period Greece the Phrygian kingdom of central Anatolia the Syro Anatolian city states the seafaring Phoenicians and the biblical Israelites of the southern Levant Egypt s Twenty first through Twenty fifth Dynasties the Urartian kingdom of the eastern Anatolian highlands and the expansionary Neo Assyrian Empire of northern Mesopotamia This volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach to understanding the social and political significance of how interregional networks operated within and between Mediterranean cultures during that era Iron and the Iron Age Christopher Pare, 2025-05-01 A comprehensive account of the adoption of ironworking in Europe and Western Asia based on archaeological evidence alongside written sources from the Near East Southern Europe and the Near East are the focus but the book also considers early ironworking in Central Europe the North Pontic steppe and the regions north and south of the Caucasus Timescales Bethany Wiggin, Carolyn

Fornoff, Patricia Eunji Kim, 2020-01-05 Humanists scientists and artists collaborate to address the disjunctive temporalities of ecological crisis In 2016 Antarctica's Totten Glacier formed some 34 million years ago detached from its bedrock melted from the bottom by warming ocean waters For the editors of Timescales this event captures the disjunctive temporalities of our era's the Anthropocene's ecological crises the rapid and accelerating degradation of our planet's life supporting environment established slowly over millennia They contend that to represent and respond to these crises i.e. climate change rising sea levels ocean acidification species extinction and biodiversity loss requires reframing time itself making more visible the relationship between past present and future and between a human life span and the planet's Timescales collection of lively and thought provoking essays puts oceanographers geophysicists geologists and anthropologists into conversation with literary scholars art historians and archaeologists Together forging new intellectual spaces they explore the relationship between geological deep time and historical particularity between ecological crises and cultural expression between environmental policy and social constructions between restoration ecology and future imaginaries and between constructive pessimism and radical and actionable hope Interspersed among these essays are three complementary etudes in which artists describe experimental works that explore the various timescales of ecological crisis Contributors Jason Bell Harvard Law School Iemanj Brown College of Wooster Beatriz Cortez California State U Northridge Wai Chee Dimock Yale U Jane E Dmochowski U of Pennsylvania David A D Evans Yale U Kate Farquhar Marcia Ferguson U of Pennsylvania m r Harman ah U of Illinois at Chicago Troy Herion Mimi Lien Mary Mattingly Paul Mitchell U of Pennsylvania Frank Pavia California Institute of Technology Dan Rothenberg Jennifer E Telesca Pratt Institute Charles M Tung Seattle U Chosen Legacies Linde Egberts, 2017-07-14 The urge for regional identity has not declined in the process of globalization Rather heritage is used to develop regional distinctiveness and to charge identities with a past Particularly helpful for this aim are creation stories Golden Ages or recent shared traumas Some themes such as the Roman era or the Second World War appear easier to appropriate than for example prehistory This book assesses the role of heritage in the construction of regional identities in Western Europe It contains case studies on early medieval heritage in Alsace and Euregio Meuse Rhine industrial heritage in the German Ruhr area and competing memories in the Arnhem Nijmegen region in the Netherlands It presents new insights into the process of heritage production on a regional level in relationship to processes of identity construction The theoretical analysis of heritage and regional identity is innovative as these concepts were hardly analysed in relation to each other before This book also offers insights into policy tourism spatial development and regional development to policymakers politicians designers and professionals in the heritage and tourism industries The Culture of Ships and Maritime Narratives Chryssanthi Papadopoulou, 2019-01-22 The ship transcends the descriptive categories of place vehicle and artefact it is a cosmos which requires its own cosmology This is the subject matter of this volume which falls within the broader flourishing sub field of maritime anthropology Specifically the volume first investigates the dialectic between the sea

the ship and the ship dweller and shows how traits are exchanged between the three It then focuses on land dwellers their understanding of seaborne existence and their invaluable contribution to the culture of ships It shows that the romanticised views of life at sea that land dwellers hold constitute an important aspect of the cosmology of ships and they too need to be considered if the polyvalence of ships is to be fully understood In order for this cosmology to be written some of the volume s contributors have travelled on ships and interviewed mariners fishermen boat builders and boat dwellers others have traced the courses of ships in poems films philosophical texts and collective myths of genealogy and heritage Overall the volume shows where ships can go and how they are perceived and experienced by those living and travelling in them watching and waiting for them dreaming and writing about them and finally what literal and metaphorical crews man them Viet Nam Ben Kiernan,2017-02-17 For many Westerners the name Vietnam evokes images of a bloody televised American war that generated a firestorm of protest and brought conflict into their living rooms In his sweeping account Ben Kiernan broadens this vision by narrating the rich history of the peoples who have inhabited the land now known as Viet Nam over the past three thousand years Despite the tragedies of the American Vietnamese conflict Viet Nam has always been much more than a war Its long history had been characterized by the frequent rise and fall of different political formations from ancient chiefdoms to imperial provinces from independent kingdoms to divided regions civil wars French colonies and modern republics In addition to dramatic political transformations the region has been shaped by its environment changing climate and the critical importance of water with rivers deltas and a long coastline facilitating agricultural patterns trade and communications Kiernan weaves together the many narrative strands of Viet Nam s multi ethnic populations including the Chams Khmers and Vietnamese and its multi religious heritage from local spirit cults to Buddhism Confucianism and Catholicism He emphasizes the peoples interactions over the millennia with foreigners particularly their neighbors in China and Southeast Asia in engagements ranging from military conflict to linguistic and cultural influences He sets the tumultuous modern period marked by French and Japanese occupation anticolonial nationalism the American Vietnamese war and communist victory against the continuities evident in the deeper history of the people s relationships with the lands where they have lived In contemporary times he explores this one party state s transformation into a global trading nation the country s tense diplomatic relationship with China and developing partnership with the United States in maintaining Southeast Asia s regional security and its uncertain prospects for democracy Written by a leading scholar of Southeast Asia Viet Nam presents an authoritative history of an ancient land Time and History in Prehistory Stella Souvatzi,Adnan Baysal,Emma Baysal,2018-10-26 Time and History in Prehistory explores the many processes through which time and history are conceptualized and constructed challenging the perception of prehistoric societies as ahistorical Drawing equally on contemporary theory and illustrative case studies and firmly rooted in material evidence this book rearticulates concepts of time and history questions the kind of narratives to be written about the past and underlines the fundamentally historical nature of prehistory From a range of multi disciplinary perspectives the authors of this volume address the scales at which archaeological evidence and narrative are interwoven from a single day to deep history and from a solitary pot to a complete city In doing so they argue the need for a multi scalar approach to prehistoric data that allows for the interplay between short and long term and for analytical units that encourage us to move continuously between scales The growing interest in time and history in archaeology and across a wide range of disciplines concerned with human action and the human past highlights that these are exceptionally active fields By juxtaposing varied viewpoints this volume bridges gaps in narrative finds a place for inclusive histories and makes clear the benefit of integrative and interdisciplinary approaches including different disciplines and types of data

The Isthmus of Corinth David Pettegrew, 2016-06-13 The narrow neck of land that joins the Peloponnese with the Greek mainland was central to the fortunes of the city of Corinth and the history of Greece from the classical Greek period to the end of the ancient world Corinth was perfectly situated for monitoring land traffic between Athens and Sparta and overland movements between eastern and western seas David Pettegrew's book offers a new history of the Isthmus of Corinth from the Romans initial presence in Greece during the Hellenistic era to the epic transformations of the Empire in late antiquity A new interpretation of the extensive literary evidence outlines how the Isthmus became the most famous land bridge of the ancient world central to maritime interests of Corinth and a medium for Rome's conquest annexation and administration in the Greek east A fresh synthesis of archaeological evidence and the results of a recent intensive survey on the Isthmus describe the physical development of fortifications settlements harbors roads and sanctuaries in the region The author includes chapters on the classical background of the concept isthmus the sacking of Corinth and the defeat of the Achaean League colonization in the Late Roman Republic the Emperor Nero's canal project and its failure the growth of Roman settlement in the territory and the end of athletic contests at Isthmia The Isthmus of Corinth offers a powerful case study in the ways that shifting Mediterranean worlds transformed a culturally significant landscape over the course of a millennium

Worlds Apart Trading Together: The organisation of long-distance trade between Rome and India in Antiquity Kasper Grønlund Evers, 2017-12-31 This book sets out to replace the outdated notion of Indo Roman trade integrating new findings from the last 30 years Analysis conducted demonstrates that highly substantial levels of trade took place between the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean in the 1st 6th c altering consumption and production in India South Arabia and the Roman Empire
