Ellen Glasgows The Difference:

The Other Woman Susan Koppelman, 1984 Inside and outside marriage what happens to the woman betrayed How do abandoned wives or lovers feel What happens when the battle between the sexes becomes a triangle The plots in this collection of eighteen stories written between the 1840s and 1980s are infinitely variable and the outcomes will enrage shock amuse and sometimes hearten In some stories women forge links with other women in solidarity In others women fight for their men and win In many stories the betrayal ultimately enriches the central character who learns through the loss of her man the value of her own life A Study Guide for Ellen Glasgow's "The Difference" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016

Sacred Estrangement Peter A. Dorsey, 1993-07-01 Sacred Estrangement analyzes certain works by important American writers and thinkers in the context of the rhetoric of conversion Such analysis is especially valuable because it provides a reliable index of the relationship between the self and larger communities Traditionally conversion has served a socializing function signifying that one has come into alignment with certain linguistic behavioral and cultural expectations The socialization process is particularly apparent in the Christian conversion narratives of the seventeenth through nineteenth centuries by publicly testifying to a conversion experience believers became empowered members not only of God's elect community but also of a local population As modern autobiography developed in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the Christian pattern was secularized and individualized Conversion became a model for many kinds of psychological change With the coming of the twentieth century however the authors upon whom Peter Dorsey focuses including William and Henry James Henry Adams Edith Wharton Ellen Glasgow Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright radically revised conversion rhetoric If conversion had traditionally linked the search for illumination with the search for a defined social role these writers increasingly used conversion as an index of estrangement from mainstream America Dorsey documents this profound change in the way American intellectuals defined the self not in terms of personal orientation toward or away from a given community but as a resistance to such an orientation altogether as if social forces by their nature were a threat to personal identity
