Twenty First Century Horror Films Douglas Keeseey, 2017-03-23 This lively and illuminating book explores over 100 contemporary horror films providing insightful and provocative readings of what they mean while including numerous quotes from their creators. Some of these films including The Babadook, The Green Inferno, It Follows, The Neon Demon, Pride and Prejudice and Zombies and The Witch are so recent that this will be one of the first times they are discussed in book form. The book is divided into three main sections: nightmares, nations and innovations. Nightmares looks at new manifestations of traditional fears including creepy dolls, haunted houses and demonic possession as well as vampires, werewolves, witches and zombies and also considers more contemporary anxieties such as dread of home invasion and homophobia. Nations explores fright films from around the world including Australia, Canada, Czechoslovakia, France, Germany, India, Japan, Norway, Russia, Serbia, Spain and Sweden as well as the UK and the US. Innovations focuses on the latest trends in terror from 3D to found footage, films from Twilight, teen romance to torture porn and from body horror and eco horror to techno horror. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2016-10-24 In the new media environment how are bodies and images related How can in other words the human body be integrated with and reformulated in relation to the sensory and perceptual dimension In response to this question Image Embodiment looks not just to images and surface appearances but addresses at a deeper level the media that act as the supports for aesthetics To think about visual culture in the twenty first century necessarily implies the thinking of the specific role of media technologies A view to media not only teases out the technical infrastructure of images but brings with it the potential for addressing the different sense modalities and realities of the human body Recent theories of the sensory turn are effectively highlighting innovative approaches for an autonomous image science and media theory in general Image Embodiment provides one part of the discourse to synchronize the concepts of image and body which is then able to connect the perspectives of philosophy of mind perceptual theory and media as well as image science This volume monitors and discusses the relation of media and the human body and refers to images embodiment and the sensory turn within the perspective of an autonomous image science Grand-Guignol Cinema and the Horror Genre Mario

Screening the Nonhuman Amber E. George, J.L. Schatz, 2016-04-27 Screening the Nonhuman draws connections between how animals represented on screen translate into reality In doing so the book demonstrates that consuming media is not a neutral act but rather a political one The images humans consume have real world consequences for how animals are treated as actors as pets and in nature The contributors propose that altering the representations of animals can change the way humans relate to non humans Our hope is for humans to generate more ethical relationships with non humans ultimately mediating reality both in terms of fiction and non fiction To achieve this end film television advertisements and social media are analyzed through an intersectional lens But the book doesn't stop here Each author creates counter representational strategies that promise to unweave the assumptions that have led to the mistreatment of humans and non humans alike

Contemporary Argentine Women Filmmakers Mirna Vohnsen, Daniel Mourenza, 2023-07-06 This edited volume offers a wide ranging picture of Argentine women filmmakers contribution to the film industry from the 1980s to the present by bringing together the work of highly acclaimed and emerging directors Through thirteen critical essays by leading scholars in the field of Argentine cinema the book acknowledges that contemporary women filmmakers have transformed the cinema of Argentina by questioning challenging and debunking hegemonic patriarchal systems of representation With a focus on women's voices and experiences the contributions redress both the under representation of women and girls onscreen and the perpetuation of stereotypes while exploring the innovative aesthetics used by these filmmakers Transnational Horror Cinema Sophia Siddique, Raphael Raphael, 2017-02-24 This book broadens the frameworks by which horror is generally addressed Rather than being constrained by psychoanalytical models of repression and castration the volume embraces M M Bakhtin's theory of the grotesque body For Bakhtin the grotesque body is always a political body one that exceeds the boundaries and borders that seek to contain it to make it behave and conform This vital theoretical intervention allows Transnational Horror Cinema to widen its scope to the social and cultural work of these global bodies of excess and the economy of their grotesque exchanges With this in mind the authors consider these bodies potentials to explore and perhaps to explode rigid cultural scripts of embodiment including gender race and ability Gender and Contemporary Horror in Film Samantha Holland, Robert Shail, Steven Gerrard, 2019-03-13 This edited collection focuses on gender and contemporary horror in film examining how and if representations of gender in horror have changed
