GUIDE ON DISCLOSURE OF RECORD DATE, BOOK CLOSURE AND LATEST TIME FOR LODGING TRANSFERS OF SHARES

28 November 2008 (Updated 20 June 2011)

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Very often an issuer in its public disclosure may refer to a temporary closure of its transfer books or member register to determine the identity of shareholders entitled to a corporate action (e.g. attendance and voting at its general meeting, entitlements and other distributions). The Listing Division has compiled this Guide to provide guidance and reference information to issuers in relation to disclosure of book closure information.
- 1.2 The responsibility for disclosing of information in announcements and circulars and complying with Listing Rules rests firmly with issuers and their directors. This Guide does not form part of the Listing Rules and does not in any way amend or vary an issuer's obligations under the Listing Rules, nor does it remove the need for issuers and their directors to make their own judgement as to what information should be disclosed in relation to corporate actions. In case of doubt, issuers are encouraged to consult their Listing Officers.
- 1.3 Issuers should also be aware that, other than the Listing Rules and the Guide, the scheduling and arrangements for book closure may be also subject to statutory laws and regulations in their jurisdiction of incorporation. For instance, there is a statutory requirement in Hong Kong on the cumulative book closure period.

2. General principles

- 2.1 Sufficient time of notification: An issuer must ensure that there is sufficient time for shareholders to act so as to take part in its corporate actions. In respect of book closure, the Listing Rules require an issuer to publish a notice of the closure of its transfer books or register of members in respect of securities listed in Hong Kong at least six business days (i.e. five clear business days) before the closure in the case of a rights issue, or 10 business days before the closure in other cases. Where there is an alteration of book closing dates, the issuer must, at least five business days before the announced closure or the new closure, whichever is earlier, notify the Exchange in writing and give further notice to the market. (See G3.8) The date on which the notice is released on the HKExnews website is counted in the notification period. Where the issuer decides on a record date without book closure, the requirements in this paragraph apply to the record date.

MB Rule 13.66(1), Note (2) to 13.66 and GEM Rule 17.78(1), Note (1) to 17.78

For a rights issue, the issuer must provide at least two trading days (as defined in the Rules of the Exchange) for trading in the securities with entitlements (i.e. before the ex-date) after publication of the book closure. If
