

Hall of Fame Speech

I want to start off by recounting a conversation I had a couple of years ago at the HMRRRC banquet with Vince Juliano, our Stockadeathon czar. He said to me, "Tom, when you make your Hall of Fame acceptance speech, please keep it short." At the time, I was gratified that Vince had such faith that I would be included in the Hall of Fame, but I was not sure if he was implying I was long winded, or that previous speeches were long. Well, Vince, rest easy. I have always listened to the wisdom of "Hamlet" (the play, not Vince's dog), where Shakespeare says "Brevity is the soul of wit." In saying this, I don't mean to denigrate Vince's dog, who often demonstrates more sense than his owner. In fact, the picture that Ed Neiles chose to accompany Bob McFarland's article about me in the Pacesetter shows me holding the leash of Hamlet at the Subaru 4-miler in Buffalo two years ago. So my induction is yet another example of how the HMRRRC is going to the dogs.

I have to recount an e-mail conversation I had with Bill Robinson after the cancellation of the banquet. He wrote me and said, "It figures that with the Siena Saints sinking to new depths, a banquet honoring one of their esteemed professors would be the first HMRRRC event ever to be postponed because of weather." As I said to him, "It's a sad time to be a Siena sports fan." By the way, Bill, for your next present I am going to give you an autographed copy of Jose Canseco's book, so you can find out a little more about baseball and honesty.

Speaking of the cancellation, I want to thank Debbie Beach and Suzie Bacon for all the help they gave me in rescheduling reservations and for all the work they have done in putting the banquet together. I especially want to thank Lee Wilcox for flying up a second time to attend this event. I also want to thank my family and friends who traveled great distances to attend the last event.

When I first became a member of the HMRRRC in 1981, there were three runners that dominated the racing scene: Pat Glover, Dale Keenan, and Bill Robinson. As I quickly discovered, as good as runners as these three are, they are truly superior individuals. In particular, I want to go on the record as saying that Bill Robinson is the most heroic person I have ever met in my life. So to join any group which includes them is a privilege and a pleasure.

By singling them out, I don't want to ignore or diminish the other august members of the Hall of Fame. The individuals who are already in the Hall of Fame are exceptional in a variety of ways, ways which most of you already know. I admire and respect them all. But Bill, Pat, and Dale were always the shining stars in my running firmament.
