Mansvelt Beck,2022-02-22 The official history of the Later Han dynasty AD 25 220 contains eight so called Treatises traditionally regarded as accurate descriptions of the dynasty s institutions Practically all literature dealing with the bureaucratic system the geography the religious beliefs or the calendar of the first two centuries AD is based on these Treatises even though their value as source material has never been critically examined This study subjects each of the Treatises in turn to a detailed scrutiny The sources used by the Chinese historian and their adaption to suit his historiographical tastes the opinions of previous critics and the weight of the available evidence all pass review in order to arrive at a balanced view of the historiographical value of each individual Treatise The Collapse of China's Later Han Dynasty, 25-220 CE Wicky W. K. Tse,2018-06-27 In the Later Han period the region covering the modern provinces of Gansu southern Ningxia eastern Qinghai northern Sichuan and western Shaanxi was a porous frontier zone between the Chinese regimes and their Central Asian neighbours not fully incorporated into the Chinese realm until the first century BCE Not surprisingly the region had a large concentration of men of martial background from which a regional culture characterized by warrior spirit and skills prevailed This military elite was generally honoured by the imperial centre but during the Later Han period the ascendancy of eastern based scholar officials and the consequent increased emphasis on civil values and de militarization fundamentally transformed the attitude of the imperial state towards the northwestern frontiersmen leaving them struggling to achieve high political and social status From the ensuing tensions and resentment followed the capture of the imperial capital by a northwestern military force the deposing of the emperor and the installation of a new one which triggered the disintegration of the empire Based on extensive original research and combining cultural military and political history this book examines fully the forging of military regional identity in the northwest borderlands and the consequences of this for the early Chinese empires
