The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 2006

Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez, Junko Yokota, Charles Temple, 2017-04-18 Much of teachers attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author s intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author s message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children s books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children s literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history
