Percoco, 2009-08-25 A journey across America revealing the history of how seven of these monuments came to be and what they mean to us today The Washington Times Across the country in the middle of busy city squares and hidden on quiet streets there are nearly two hundred statues erected in memory of Abraham Lincoln No other American has ever been so widely commemorated A few years ago Jim Percoco a history teacher with a passion for both Lincoln and public sculpture set off to see what he might learn about some of these monuments what they meant to their creators and to the public when they were unveiled and what they mean to us today The result is a fascinating chronicle of four summers on the road looking for Lincoln stories in statues of marble and bronze Percoco selects seven emblematic works among them Thomas Ball s Emancipation Group erected east of the Capitol in 1876 with private funds from African Americans and dedicated by Frederick Douglass Augustus Saint Gaudens s majestic Standing Lincoln of 1887 in Chicago Paul Manship s 1932 Lincoln the Hoosier Youth in Fort Wayne Indiana and Gutzon Borglum s 1911 Seated Lincoln struggling with the pain of leadership beckoning visitors to sit next to him on his metal bench in Newark New Jersey At each stop Percoco chronicles the history of the monument spotlighting its artistic social political and cultural origins His descriptions draw fresh meaning from mute stone and cold metal raising provocative questions not just about who Lincoln might have been but about what we ve wanted him to be in the monuments we ve built

Abraham Lincoln as a Man Among Men (Classic Reprint) Guy Lynn Sumner, 2017-12-19

Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln as a Man Among Men If I should carve a Lincoln I would take No snow white marble but a rugged rock One that the frosts of Winter could not break That had withstood the ocean's thundering shock Some solid rock amid the shifting sands Unmoved by storm unaltered by the wave Some granite giant that forever stands To mark the harbor with a light to save If I should carve a Lincoln I would shape Some promontory lifting from the sea Standing as Lincoln stood a mighty cape Thrust forward into time a century Looking as Lincoln looked beyond the shore Across the ocean of the future years A rock to stand for men forevermore And point the way to other pioneers If I should carve a Lincoln I would form A figure from a rock that loved the sun A rock that glistened after every storm And smiled with verdure when the rain was done A rock where little children came to play And violets to blossom on the slope That found like Lincoln humor in each day In words of humor finding words of hope If you would carve a Lincoln such a stone You will require O sculptor for your art Some stone gigantic standing thus alone High as his mind and broad as Lincoln's heart We may not hope to shape with human hands A fit memorial for such as he Leave Time to carve it from some rock that stands Some new Gibraltar by our western sea About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
