Making Evaluation Matter Writings From South Asia:

Making Evaluation Matter Katherine Eve Hay, Shubh Kumar-Range, 2014 The Institutionalisation of Evaluation in Asia-Pacific Reinhard Stockmann, Wolfgang Meyer, Niklas Zierke, 2023-11-21 This book examines the progress of institutionalisation of evaluation in Asia Pacific from various perspectives It presents prior developments and current states of evaluation in 11 countries focusing on three dimensions namely the political social and professional systems These detailed country reports which have been written by selected researchers and authors of the respective countries lead to a concluding comparison and synthesis This is the third of four volumes of the compendium The Institutionalisation of Evaluation The first volume on Europe was published in 2020 and the second volume on the Americas in 2022 It will be followed by another volume on Africa The overall aim is to provide an interdisciplinary audience with cross country learning to enable them to better understand the institutionalisation of evaluation in different nations world regions and sectors Indian National Bibliography B. S. Kesavan, 2017 Constitution Writing, Religion and Democracy Asli Ümmühan Bali, Hanna Lerner, 2017-02-02 This book explores the challenge of crafting a democratic constitution under conditions of deep disagreement over a state's religious or secular identity Women's Travel Writings in India 1777-1854 Carl Thompson, Katrina O'Loughlin, Éadaoin Agnew, Betty Hagglund, 2022-07-30 The memsahibs of the British Raj in India are well known figures today frequently depicted in fiction TV and film In recent years they have also become the focus of extensive scholarship Less familiar to both academics and the general public however are the eighteenth and early nineteenth century precursors to the memsahibs of the Victorian and Edwardian era Yet British women also visited and resided in India in this earlier period witnessing first hand the tumultuous expansionist decades in which the East India Company established British control over the subcontinent Some of these travellers produced highly regarded accounts of their experiences thereby inaugurating a rich tradition of women's travel writing about India In the process they not only reported events and developments in the subcontinent they also contributed to them helping to shape opinion and policy on issues such as colonial rule religion and social reform This new set in the Chawton House Library Women's Travel Writing series assembles seven of these accounts six by British authors Jemima Kindersley Maria Graham Eliza Fay Ann Deane Julia Maitland and Mary Sherwood and one by an American Harriet Newell Their narratives here reproduced for the first time in reset scholarly editions were published between 1777 and 1854 and recount journeys undertaken in India or periods of residence there between the 1760s and the 1830s Collectively they showcase the range of women's interests and activities in India and also the variety of narrative forms voices and personae available to them as travel writers Some stand squarely in the tradition of Enlightenment ethnography others show the growing influence of Evangelical beliefs But all disrupt any lingering stereotypes about women's passivity reticence and lack of public agency in this period when colonial women were not yet as sequestered and debarred from cross cultural contact as they would later be during the Raj Their narratives are consequently a useful resource to students and researchers across multiple fields and disciplines including women's writing travel writing colonial and postcolonial studies the history of women's educational and missionary work and Romantic era and nineteenth century literature
