The Chiwaya War E. Page, 2022-02-28 The Chiwaya War s basic conclusions are that the First World War was a major turning point in the history of Malawi s peoples creating the first glimmers of a shared national identity and that it marked more than any event before or since the entry of Malawians into the emerging modern world system far more quickly than likely they and certainly even the most enlightened British colonial administrators of the time would have preferred

Rap Music and the Youth in Malawi Ken Lipenga

Jr.,2022-11-29 Rap Music and the Youth in Malawi is one of the first book length studies of Malawian hip hop It studies the language and content of contemporary Malawian hip hop as a window onto the country s youth culture as Malawian young people negotiate what scholar Alcinda Honwana calls waithood or the condition common among Malawian youth of lacking opportunities to advance from a situation of dependence and being stuck in a state of relative childhood The book argues that rap music made by Malawian youth music speaks of and represents through its very agency their need to break out of this stagnant state After situating Malawian hip hop with respect to both other musical genres in the country and to the nation s language in culture Rap Music and the Youth in Malawi shows how Malawian youth use rap music to create a sense of community which then becomes a foothold from which they can do activities that get them out of waithood and into the adult world such as getting involved in the music industry realizing electoral power or participating in activism about issues such as violence against people with albinism and the COVID 19 pandemic Hip hop has been a crucial tool for Malawian youth to build the skills identity and agency necessary to exercise their economic cultural and civic independence

Doomed Interventions Kim Yi Dionne,2018 This book is for students and scholars studying political economy public policy and global health and all those who are interested in knowing how ordinary Africans think about the response to the AIDS epidemic It studies the divergent priorities of donors and citizens in response to AIDS intervention in Africa

Language of Instruction and Cognitive Development Anja Langer,2013 Malawi s recent education statistics show that a high percentage of pupils do not achieve their study goals and subsequently drop out of school This study examines the underlying reasons yet the main focus rests on the language of instruction Learners in three different language areas in Malawi participated in a picture based test to find out whether the development of problem oriented logical thinking is influenced by the instruction in the mother tongue in early primary school Answers are offered with the help of tests and observations during the tests as well as interviews with teachers parents and decision makers Series Beitrage zur Afrikanistik

Contributions to African Vol 21 The Rebirth of Education Lant Pritchett,2013-09-30 Despite great progress around the world in getting more kids into schools too many leave without even the most basic skills In India s rural Andhra Pradesh for instance only about one in twenty children in fifth grade can perform basic arithmetic The problem is that schooling is not the same as learning In The Rebirth of Education Lant Pritchett uses two metaphors from nature to explain why The first draws on Ori Brafman and Rod Beckstrom s book about the difference between centralized and decentralized organizations The Starfish and the Spider Schools systems tend be centralized and suffer from the limitations inherent in top down designs The second metaphor is the concept of isomorphic mimicry Pritchett argues that many developing countries superficially imitate systems that were successful in other nations much as a nonpoisonous snake mimics the look of a poisonous one Pritchett argues that the solution is to allow functional systems to evolve locally out of an environment pressured for success Such an ecosystem needs to be open to variety and experimentation locally operated and flexibly financed The only main cost is ceding control the reward would be the rebirth of education suited for today's world      Thinking Through Resistance

Nicola Bulled, 2017-03-03 Thinking Through Resistance examines a diverse range of case studies of opposition to biomedical public health policies from resistance to HPV vaccinations in Texas to disputes over HIV prevention research in Malawi to assess the root causes of opposition. It is argued that far from being based on ignorance, resistance instead serves as a form of advocacy calling for improvements in basic health care delivery alongside expanded access to infrastructure and basic social services. With contributions from medical anthropologists, sociologists, and public health experts, the book makes important reading for researchers, students, and practitioners in the fields of public health, medical anthropology, and public policy.

Towards Sustainable Food Production in Africa Morris Fanadzo, Nothando Dunjana, Hupenyu Allan Mupambwa, Ernest Dube, 2023-07-10 This edited book is focused on Sustainable Development Goal 2. It offers a comprehensive and topical collection of practices, technologies, and innovations in the field of sustainable food production and security under a changing climate. It is a one-stop handbook for farmers, researchers, extensionists, policy makers, and other stakeholders seeking to identify and disseminate best-fit technologies for local and regional landscapes. It offers an understanding of the challenges, risks, and uncertainties, as well as opportunities to foster productive and sustainable food production. Smallholder farming and agriculture in general is facing a serious threat from climate change that has resulted in erratic and unpredictable rainfall and increased temperatures among other abiotic stresses. These climate change-induced pressures have reduced productivity mainly among the smallholder farmers who are critical in driving the attainment of sustainable development goals like SDG 2, 12, and 13. The objective of the book is to document effective and practicable practices and technologies that can be adopted by smallholder African farmers as mitigation measures against the effects of climate change. This book is of interest to researchers, agricultural scientists, climate change scientists, capacity builders, and policymakers.      Annual Report Malawi. Anti-Corruption Bureau, 2003      International Review of Modern Sociology, 2008

Handbook of Literacy in Africa R. Malatesha Joshi, Catherine A. McBride, Bestern Kaani, Gad Elbeheri, 2023-07-28 This volume highlights the shortcomings concerning literacy development in Africa and collates the current available literature based on empirical research in various countries in a coherent manner. Further emphasized is how the current research can guide practical information to improve the literacy situation in Africa. The research studies will encompass various fields such as linguistics, neurosciences, and education and will provide future research directions and instructional recommendations to improve the literacy situation in Africa.      Agricultural Input Subsidies Ephraim Chirwa, Andrew Dorward, 2013-09-26 This book takes forward our understanding of agricultural input subsidies in low-income countries.      Strategies and Priorities for African Agriculture Xinshen Diao, James Thurlow, Samuel Benin, Shenggen Fan, 2012 In the first decade of the twenty-first century, countries within Sub-Saharan Africa reached milestones that seemed impossible only ten years ago: macroeconomic stability, sustained economic growth, and improved governance. Continuing this pattern of success will require enhancing the region's agricultural sector in which a large proportion of poor people make a living. The authors of Strategies and Priorities for African Agriculture Economywide Perspectives from Country Studies argue that although the diversity of the region makes generalization difficult, increasing staple crop production is more likely to reduce poverty than increasing export crop production. This conclusion is based on case studies of ten low-income African countries that reflect varying levels of resource endowments and development stages. The authors also recommend increased more efficient public investment in agriculture and agricultural markets and propose new directions for future research. The last ten years have been an encouraging time for one of the world's poorest regions; this book offers an analysis of how recent promising trends can be sustained into the future.

Falciparum Malaria Tabish Qidwai, 2024-04-14 Falciparum Malaria: Diagnostic Tools, Therapeutic Advances and Future Opportunities discusses the current state of therapeutic options for malaria: antimalarial drugs and drug targets. The book also covers recent progress in the development of vaccines and other approaches for malaria treatment, prevention, and control, and explores diagnostic tools and biomarkers. Sections examine potential biomarkers and their applications, molecular diagnostic tools, multi-omic approaches for the characterization of therapeutic action of potential new antimalarials, therapeutic advances in falciparum malaria, antimalarial drugs targeting parasite apicoplast for antimalarial drug discovery, cellular and adjunctive therapies for malaria treatment, and future opportunities. With contributions from experts in the field, this book is an ideal resource for academics, researchers, graduates, and industry engaged in malaria research, its diagnosis, and treatment. Reviews current therapeutic strategies of falciparum malaria. Covers antimalarial drugs, peptides, vaccines, and RNAi approaches against malaria. Explores antimalarial drug targets in parasites. Discusses biomarkers and new diagnostic tools.

Capabilities, Gender, Equality Flavio Comim, Martha C. Nussbaum, 2014-04-17 Questions of gender injustice and equality pervade all our lives, and as such the capabilities or human development approach to understanding well-being and basic political entitlements continues to be debated. In this thought-provoking book, a range of authors provide unique reflections on the capabilities approach and specifically Martha C. Nussbaum's contributions to issues of gender equality and political liberalism. Moreover, the authors tackle a broad range of development issues, including those of religion, ecological and environmental justice, social justice, child care, disability, and poverty. This is the first book to examine Nussbaum's work in political philosophy in such depth, bringing together a group of distinguished experts with diverse disciplinary perspectives. It also features a unique contribution from Nussbaum herself in which she offers reactions to the discussion and her latest thoughts on the capabilities approach. Capabilities, Gender, Equality will interest a wide range of readers and policymakers interested in new human development policies.
