

EXTENDED WARRANTIES: Manufacturers vs. Independent Providers

MANUFACTURERS

- Don't usually offer more than three coverage levels
- Typically only let drivers sign up before their factory warranty expires
- Sell extended coverage only through brand dealerships
- Cover repairs solely at brand dealerships or authorized facilities
- Are not always transparent about mileage limits
- Ensure that repairs are done with genuine factory parts

INDEPENDENT PROVIDERS

- Offer three to six different coverage levels, typically
- Allow drivers to buy coverage whenever they need to – even after the factory warranty expires
- Allow drivers to buy contracts online or over the phone
- Cover repairs at any ASE®-certified facility
- Often give warranties with mileage limits up to 250,000+
- Can't guarantee that repairs can be done with factory-made part replacements

ASE® means the facility has been certified with the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence.*
