European Claims In Muslim Regions Prentice Hall:

World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Anthony Esler, 2014 Marketing in the Emerging Markets of Islamic Countries M. Marinov, 2006-11-28 The book offers an exciting overview of the marketing opportunities challenges and traditions in Islamic countries Providing an insight into the specifics of marketing in Islamic countries the book is an interesting and helpful read for marketers students and all who enjoy marketing challenges presented by less well known emerging markets

Teaching Educational Leadership in Muslim Countries Eugenie A. Samier, Eman S. ElKaleh, 2019-04-10 This book explores the Islamic tradition and Muslim contexts for educational administration and leadership It addresses the teaching of educational administration and leadership from an Islamic perspective by raising issues of globalised educational administration and leadership teaching as it applies in Muslim contexts that vary by culture and social institutions The book proposes alternative approaches and demonstrates that Islamic traditions have a strong foundation upon which to build in the field and are compatible with many aspects of Western theory and practices provided that sufficient modifications and adaptations are made The book focuses on postgraduate curricula and pedagogy drawing on a range of theoretical foundations and approaches that are culturally and jurisdictionally appropriate in a number of Muslim countries As such it contributes to an emerging specialisation in international and comparative educational administration and leadership that is oriented towards a broader and more diverse set of perspectives particularly from the non Western world Britain and the Muslim World Gerald MacLean, 2010-10-12 Based on papers presented at an international three day conference sponsored by the British Academy and held at the Institute for Arab and Islamic Studies at the University of Exeter in April 2009 this collection of essays provides a comprehensive and accessible synthesis of the most advanced specialist and scholarly knowledge to date concerning historical perspectives on relations between Britain and the Muslim World Ranging from the early modern period to the present day the essays collected here represent work by leading writers and scholars from relevant fields history international relations economics religion law art history and design film studies and sociology as well as literary and cultural studies These essays explore the historical impacts of cross cultural encounters between Islam and Britain by variously addressing the question of how relations between Britain and the Muslim world in the past have brought us to our current situation and in some cases by proposing directions for necessary further consideration and research The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism C. Michael Hall, Girish Prayag, 2019-05-20

The Routledge Handbook of Halal Hospitality and Islamic Tourism provides a greater understanding of the current debates associated with Islamic tourism and halal hospitality in the context of businesses communities destinations and the wider socio political context It therefore sheds substantial light on one of the most significant travel and consumer markets in the world today and the important role of religion in contemporary hospitality and tourism The book examines halal hospitality and lodging Islamic markets product developments heritage certification and emerging and future trends and issues It integrates case studies from a range of countries and destinations and in doing so emphasises the significant differences that exist with respect to regulating and commodifying halal as well as stressing that the Islamic market is not monolithic. Written by highly regarded international academics it offers a range of perspectives and enables a comprehensive discussion of this integral part of Islam and contemporary society. This handbook will be of significant interest to upper level students, researchers and academics in the various disciplines of Tourism, Hospitality, Food Studies, Marketing, Religious Studies, Geography, Sociology and Islamic Studies.

The Claim to Christianity Hannah Strømmen, Ulrich Schmiedel, 2020-06-30. The far right is on the rise across Europe pushing a battle scenario in which Islam clashes with Christianity as much as Christianity clashes with Islam. From the margins to the mainstream, far right protesters and far right politicians call for the defence of Europe's Christian culture. The far right claims Christianity. This book investigates contemporary far right claims to Christianity. Ulrich Schmiedel and Hannah Strømmen examine the theologies that emerge in the far right across Europe, concentrating on Norway, Germany and Great Britain. They explore how churches in these three countries have been complicit, complacent or critical of the far right, sometimes intentionally and sometimes unintentionally. Ultimately, Schmiedel and Strømmen encourage a creative and collaborative theological response. To counter the far right, Christianity needs to be practiced in an open and open-ended way which calls Christians into contact with Muslims.

The Palgrave Handbook of Textbook Studies Eckhardt Fuchs, Annekatrin Bock, 2018-04-04. This volume examines the present status and future trends of textbook studies. Cutting edge essays by leading experts and emerging scholars explore the field's theories, methodologies and topics with the goal of generating debate and providing new perspectives. The Georg Eckert Institute's unique transdisciplinary focus on international textbook research has shaped this handbook which explores the history of the discipline, the production processes and contexts that influence textbooks, the concepts they incorporate, how this medium itself is received and future trends. The book maps and discusses approaches based in cultural studies as well as in the social and educational sciences in addition to contemporary methodologies used in the field. The book aims to become the central interdisciplinary reference for textbook researchers, students and educational practitioners.

Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2005-10-31. Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio-cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the seventh and sixteenth century. This important two-volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages, Arabic literature, architecture, art history, history, history of science, Islamic arts, Islamic studies, Middle Eastern studies, Near Eastern studies, politics, religion, Semitic studies, theology and more. This reference provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization including the many scientific, artistic and religious developments as well as all aspects of daily life and culture.
