Evangelistic Apologetics Compatibility And Integration:

Evangelistic Apologetics Braxton Hunter, 2014-12-01 Christian apologetics has become very popular among 21st Century evangelicals Unfortunately it is often enjoyed rather than employed It is a novelty or hobby subject for believers who enjoy talking theology and philosophy in the tradition of the Athenian intelligentsia to whom Paul preached in Acts seventeen When Christian apologetics is employed it is often misused Rather than seeking to impact the heart and mind of an individual a believer who is enamored with Christian defense might use novice approaches to win an argument However the desire of the church should be for God to win an individual's heart and mind The goal of this work is to aid and inspire the people of God in the work of evangelism Introducing Christian apologetics for the sake of novelty is not in view Instead the author sees Christian defense as a practice that is often necessary when carrying out the evangelistic task Some have referred to this great discipline as a pre evangelistic endeavor While this makes sense in a practical way it improperly describes what is actually taking place during an apologetic appeal In the author's view no Christian apologist has accomplished his work until he has presented and in some cases defended the truth of the gospel Such a presentation is by definition an evangelistic one In this Volume Christian Apologetics in the 21st Century The History of Christian Apologetics The Major Divisions of Christian Apologetics The State of Evangelism in the 21st Century The Compatibility of Evangelism and Christian Apologetics The Integration of Evangelism and Christian Apologetics Apologetics and Doctrinal Differences Theistic Arguments Evidences in Favor of the Resurrection of Jesus Arguments and Evidences Specific to Various Methodologies Guidance in Choosing an Apologetic Method for Types of Evangelistic Ministries Instruction on Delivery of Evangelistic Apologetics

Developing a Christian Apologetics Educational Program Douglas E. Potter, 2010-02-18 Many are expressing concern about the future of Christian youth today What can we do to help ensure they will keep their evangelical faith once they graduate from high school Can Christian apologetics provide an educational solution Developing A Christian Apologetics

Educational Program explores issues certain to be encountered by secondary school educators who want to teach apologetics as a distinct subject of study either as a part of a Christian institutional or home school curriculum This book helps the apologist and educator blend their skills to soundly integrate the two subjects A solution is sought by providing a background and rational for implementing an age level appropriate apologetics course at this critical level of Christian education This book is designed as a text to supplement those used in Christian education or applied apologetics courses each chapter successively builds upon the other to help develop an educational philosophy that supports the inclusion of apologetics in the curriculum A model is explained and materials are given to support the development of a curriculum in Christian Apologetics Education at the secondary level Practical ideas are explored and a sample unit of instruction is supplied to help the educator develop an evangelical approach to education that is in the classical apologetic tradition

Bridging Faith and Reason:

Apologetics Beyond Concordism, Anachronism, and Scientism Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada, Bridging Faith and Reason

Apologetics Beyond Concordism Anachronism and Scientism is a bold and thoughtful journey into the heart of modern Christian apologetics. In a world where faith and science often seem at odds, this book offers a refreshing invitation to move beyond forced harmonizations and engage both Scripture and science on their own terms. Drawing on theology, philosophy, and cultural analysis, the author critiques simplistic concordism, warns against reading modern science into ancient texts, and dismantles the illusion of scientism as the sole path to truth. Instead, the book champions a humble and intellectually honest apologetic method, one that honors the literary richness of Scripture and the provisional nature of scientific inquiry. Whether you are a skeptic, seeker, or believer, this book offers a compelling vision of Christian faith as a dynamic, thoughtful, and deeply human pursuit of truth. Discover how apologetics can become a bridge, not a barrier, between reason and revelation. This beautifully written book gives the reader a deep philosophical dive into the interactions between theology and science. The author presents thorough discussions of the complex ways that these disciplines have influenced, conflicted with, and reinforced each other over history and in the present. He presents a comprehensive and enlightening view of concordism, anachronism, and scientism as dangers to be avoided and describes worldviews that treat philosophy, theology, and science as valid and valuable contributions to human knowledge and the understanding of reality. A valuable resource for anyone interested in the details of the philosophical dynamics between science and faith.

Sy Garte, Ph.D., Biochemist, Author of The Works of His Hands: A Scientist's Journey from Atheism to Faith. A significant portion of the modern intellectual world rests on the unsupported foundation of scientism, the typically self-serving notion that knowledge is gained only through science. Yet what laboratory experiment demonstrated that? In fact, scientism is a parasite that feeds off the prestige of real working science. It is a terrible philosophy with no answers for the most profound questions that tug on the human heart. In his latest book, Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada takes the measure of scientism and shows the way to a balanced, fruitful understanding of the relationship between faith and reason.

Michael J. Behe, author of Darwin's Black Box. Martin Luther reportedly compared human nature to a drunken man on horseback who, if he doesn't fall off on one side, he'll fall off the other. What he lacks is balance. Balance is also hard to find in much contemporary thinking about theology, philosophy, science, and how they are related to each other. This fine volume by Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada provides an important counterexample to this tendency: a thorough, fair, historically informed, and carefully argued account of faith, reason, and science that does justice to each and relates them in a balanced and fruitful way. This will be a helpful resource for anyone hoping to stay on the saddle in this important but contested area. I recommend it highly.

David A. Horner, D.Phil., Oxford Professor of Theology and Philosophy, Talbot School of Theology, Biola University. In Bridging Faith and Reason, Dr. Caius Obeada offers a rigorous and balanced exploration of how Scripture and science can be engaged without distortion or reduction. With intellectual clarity and deep conviction he challenges both concordist shortcuts and scientific reductionism pointing instead to a more faithful apologetic of our faith grounded in humility and truth Having read this work I am encouraged by the way Dr Obeada equips believers pastors and even theologians to think critically to honor God's Word and to engage our culture with confidence and grace This book is an important contribution to the ongoing dialogue between faith theology and the sciences Sergiu M Br dean Pastor First Romanian Baptist Church Windsor Ontario This book offers a fresh and important perspective on the relationship between faith and science The author emphasizes that this relationship is not a battleground but rather a place of rich dialogue and shared wonder Throughout this book the central argument is that apologetics is not about transforming theology into science or vice versa Rather it is about building bridges finding how the revelations of modern science can coexist with the timeless truths of the Bible It is about holding together the human inquiry and the mystery of divine revelation In doing so the author is inviting both believers and skeptics into a deeper conversation about faith and science Rector Conf Univ Dr Daniel Mari Institutul Teologic Baptist Bucure ti I very much welcome author's call to broaden our standards of rationality and to cultivate virtues of provisionality and interpretive care in our apologetic work Honoring multiple modes of knowing scientific philosophical theological is not only desirable but necessary I also welcome Caius underlying assumption that such conversation is not merely about methods of knowing but about knowing before the One who calls us to truth George Ille PhD an Affiliate Professor of Theology and Philosophy at Asbury Theological Seminary
