Guardians of the Brazilian Amazon Rainforest: Environmental Organizations and Development Luiz C. Barbosa,2015-05-08 The Amazon region is the focus of intense conflict between conservationists concerned with deforestation and advocates of agro industrial development This book focuses on the contributions of environmental organizations to the preservation of Brazilian Amazonia It reveals how environmental organizations such as Greenpeace Friends of the Earth WWF and others have fought fiercely to stop deforestation in the region It documents how the history of frontier expansion and environmental struggle in the region is linked to Brazil s position in an evolving capitalist world economy It is shown how Brazil s effort to become a developed country has led successive Brazilian governments to devise development projects for Amazonia The author analyses how globalization has led to the expansion of international commodity chains in the region particularly for mineral ores soybeans and beef He shows how environmental organizations have politicized these commodity chains as weapons of conservation through boycotting certain products while other pro development groups within Brazil claim that such organizations threaten Brazil s sovereignty over its own resources

World Rainforest Report ,1988      Environment, Inc Christopher John Bosso,2005 To understand the environmental movement is to understand environmental organizations And no one better understands this than Bosso His book is both important and timely Jeffrey M Berry author of The New Liberalism The Rising Power of Citizen Groups A must read for anyone interested in the future of our environment Frank R Baumgartner coauthor of Basic Interests The Importance of Groups in Politics and in Political Science An important engaging and well written book that s ideal for courses in environmental politics Robert J Duffy author of The Green Agenda in American Politics New Strategies for the Twenty First Century A masterful study that fills a critical void in the field Michael E Kraft author of Environmental Policy and Politics Publisher      Food in America Andrew F. Smith,2017-02-16 This three volume work examines all facets of the modern U S food system including the nation s most important food and agriculture laws the political forces that shape modern food policy and the food production trends that are directly impacting the lives of every American family Americans are constantly besieged by conflicting messages about food the environment and health and nutrition Are foods with genetically modified ingredients safe Should we choose locally grown food Is organic food better than conventional food Are concentrated animal feed operations destroying the environment Should food corporations target young children with their advertising and promotional campaigns This comprehensive three volume set addresses all of these questions and many more probing the problems created by the industrial food system examining conflicting opinions on these complex food controversies and highlighting the importance of food in our lives and the decisions we make each time we eat The coverage of each of the many controversial food issues in the set offers perspectives from different sides to encourage readers to examine various viewpoints and make up their own minds The first volume Food and the Environment addresses timely issues such as climate change food waste pesticides and sustainable foods Volume two entitled Food and Health and Nutrition addresses subjects like antibiotics food labeling and the effects of salt and sugar on our health The third volume Food and the Economy tackles topics such as food advertising and marketing food corporations genetically modified foods globalization and megagrocery chains Each volume contains several dozen primary documents that include firsthand accounts written by promoters and advertisers journalists politicians and government officials and supporters and critics of various views related to food and beverages representing speeches advertisements articles books portions of major laws and government documents to name a few These documents provide readers additional resources from which to form informed opinions on food issues The New Eco-order James L. McIntire,1995 Bad Harvest Nigel Dudley,Jean-Paul Jeanrenaud,Francis Sullivan,2014-06-03 The world's forests are disappearing at an alarming rate and with disastrous consequences Demand for wood and paper products ranks high amongst the causes of deforestation and forest degradation and is now the major cause of loss in those forests richest in wildlife There is a great deal to be done to improve the timber industry before our forests are safely and sustainably managed Bad Harvest presents an incisive account of the role that the timber trade has played in the loss and degradation of forests around the world It examines the environmental consequences of the trade on boreal temperate and tropical regions and its impacts for local people working and living in the forests It also looks at the changing nature of the trade and assesses current national and international initiatives to address the impacts of deforestation Finally the authors show how things could be improved in the future by presenting a new strategy for sustainable forest management Based on 15 years of extensive research particularly work carried out by the World Wide Fund for Nature Bad Harvest is essential reading on the subject not only for environmentalists but also for those in the timber trade seeking to improve the management and reputation of their product Conservation Directory 2002 National Wildlife Federation,2002 A comprehensive listing of conservation and environmental organizations with nearly 4000 listings These include state provincial and federal agencies in the US and Canada US Congress members including committees and subcommittees national and international governmental organizations US Canadian and international non governmental organizations colleges and universities with conservation programs parks refuges and other protected areas and conservation information resources Each entry contains detailed contact information including names addresses and telephone and fax numbers Entries are categorized by organization type and state or country and are indexed alphabetically and by subject Each person listed in the directory is also indexed alphabetically Africa in Contemporary Perspective Manuh, Takiwiwa,Sutherland-Addy, Esi,2014-05-08 An important feature of Ghanaian tertiary education is the foundational African Studies Programme which was initiated in the early 1960s Unfortunately hardly any readers exist which bring together a body of knowledge on the themes issues and debates which inform and animate research and teaching in African Studies particularly on the African continent This becomes even more important when we consider the need for knowledge on Africa that is not Eurocentric or sensationalised but driven from internal understandings of life and prospects in Africa Dominant representations and perceptions of Africa usually depict a continent in crisis Rather than buying into external representations of Africa with its lacks and aspirations for Western modernities we insist that African scholars in particular should be in the forefront of promoting understanding of the pluri lingual overlapping and dense reality of life and developments on the continent to produce relevant and usable knowledge Continuing and renewed interest in Africa s resources including the land mass economy minerals visual arts and performance cultures as well as bio medical knowledge and products by old and new geopolitical players obliges African scholars to transcend disciplinary boundaries and to work with each other to advance knowledge and uses of those resources in the interests of Africa s people Design for a Livable Planet Jon Naar,1990 This book explains in straightforward language the causes and effects of environmental pollution AND offers SOLUTIONS practical steps you can take to begin cleaning up and prevent further damage 2001 Conservation Directory National Wildlife Federation,2001-06 Over 3 000 organizations and agencies The Foundation Grants Index,2001 Associations transnationales ,1989 Includes monthly supplements to International congress calendar

Conservation Directory 2000 National Wildlife Federation,1999 The Lyons Press is proud to present the forty fifth annual edition of the National Wildlife Federation s Conservation Directory of U S and international organizations and agencies working to protect the environment the most vital resource of its kind Included are members of the United States Congress government agencies citizens groups educational institutions databases services periodicals and other directories federally protected conservation areas indexes and more This annual directory is essential for colleges and universities libraries environmental activists students outdoor writers science editors natural resource agencies those seeking employment in the field of conservation researchers and all individuals interested in wildlife and ecology Nontimber Forest Products in the United States Eric T. Jones,Rebecca Jean McLain,James F. Weigand,2002 A quiet revolution is taking place in America s forests Once seen primarily as stands of timber our woodlands are now prized as a rich source of a wide range of commodities from wild mushrooms and maple sugar to hundreds of medicinal plants whose uses have only begun to be fully realized Now as timber harvesting becomes more mechanized and requires less labor the image of the lumberjack is being replaced by that of the forager This book provides the first comprehensive examination of nontimber forest products NTFPs in the United States illustrating their diverse importance describing the people who harvest them and outlining the steps that are being taken to ensure access to them As the first extensive national overview of NTFP policy and management specific to the United States it brings together research from numerous disciplines and analytical perspectives such as economics mycology history ecology law entomology forestry geography and anthropology in order to provide a cohesive picture of the current and potential role of NTFPs The contributors review the state of scientific knowledge of NTFPs by offering a survey of commercial and noncommercial products an overview of uses and users and discussions of sustainable management issues associated with ecology cultural traditions forest policy and commerce They examine some of the major social economic and biological benefits of NTFPs while also addressing the potential negative consequences of NTFP harvesting on forest ecosystems and on NTFP species populations Within this wealth of information are rich accounts of NTFP use drawn from all parts of the American landscape from the Pacific Northwest to the Caribbean From honey production to a review of nontimber forest economies still active in the United States such as the Ojibway harvest of plants recounted here the book takes in the whole breadth of recent NTFP issues including ecological concerns associated with the expansion of NTFP markets and NTFP tenure issues on federally managed lands No other volume offers such a comprehensive overview of NTFPs in North America By examining all aspects of these products it contributes to the development of more sophisticated policy and management frameworks for not only ensuring their ongoing use but also protecting the future of our forests
