more married women pursued education and employment and gays and lesbians gained visibility feminism and gay liberation also challenged patriarchal and restrictive gender roles and helped to reshape marriage In 1920 most people married for life in the twenty first century fewer marry and serial monogamy prevails Marriage is more diverse and flexible in form but also more fragile and optional than it once was Over the century control of courtship shifted from parents to youth and friends as opposed to kin became more important in sustaining marriages Dual wage earner families replaced the male breadwinner Social and political liberalism assailed conservative laws and religious regimes expanding access to divorce and birth control Although norms of masculinity and femininity retain huge power in most cultures visions of more egalitarian and romantic love as the basis of marriage have gained traction made appealing by the global spread of capitalist social relations and also broadcast by culture industries in the developed world The legalization of same sex marriage in over twenty five nations by 2020 epitomizes a century of change toward a less gender defined ideal that includes a continued desire for social recognition and permanence A Cultural History of Marriage in the Modern Age presents an overview of the period with essays on Courtship and Ritual Religion State and Law Kinship and Social Networks the Family Economy Love and Sex the Breaking of Vows and Representations of Marriage
