Handbook of Flood Risk Management in Developing Countries Victor Oladokun,David Proverbs,Oluseye Adebimpe,Taiwo Adedeji,2023-03-31 This new handbook brings together various views and experiences of the impacts of flooding and its management in Africa Asia and Latin America by drawing from traditional and modern approaches adopted by communities homeowners academics project managers institutions and policy makers Key stakeholders provide insights and perspectives on flood hazards flood impacts flood control and adaptation strategies across these regions The inclusion of policy makers emergency responders leaders of key organizations and managers of flood defence projects makes this volume a unique addition to the flood management literature. The chapters are organized to reveal various impacts and challenges associated with the management of flooding including response and recovery. The chapter contributions bring together the different impacts of flooding and propose various mitigation approaches. They describe procedures for managing flooding and reducing the impacts from the perspectives of policy makers, environmental planners and restorers of flood affected communities. Also, the book considers some of the related aspects including land use, waste management, drainage systems, security challenges, urban planning and development and their contributions to flooding. The book's primary target is experienced researchers and practitioners in flood risk management. It would also serve as a key text for postgraduate students studying related programmes. Inhabitants of flood prone communities in such developing countries will also find the text an important resource for guidance and understanding. This multi-disciplinary book represents a valuable contribution for a wide range of professionals e.g. in engineering, built environment, health, retail etc. who are interested in flood control and management and/or faced with flood related challenges in the course of their work.

Communicating Process Architectures 2015 & 2016 K. Chalmers, J. Bækgaard Pedersen, F.R.M. Barnes, 2018-10-04. This book presents the proceedings of two conferences: the 37th and 38th in the WoTUG series Communicating Process Architectures (CPA). CPA 2015 was held in Canterbury, England, in August 2015, and CPA 2016 was held in Copenhagen, Denmark, in August 2016. Fifteen papers were accepted for presentation at the 2015 conference. They cover a spectrum of concurrency concerns: mathematical theory, programming languages, design and support tools, verification, multicore infrastructure and applications ranging from supercomputing to embedded. Three workshops and two evening fringe sessions also formed part of the conference, and the workshop position papers and fringe abstracts are included in this book. Fourteen papers covering the same broad spectrum of topics were presented at the 2016 conference, one of them in the form of a workshop. They are all included here together with abstracts of the five fringe sessions from the conference.

Financial Risk Management for Islamic Banking and Finance I. Akkizidis, S. Khandelwal, 2015-12-04. Financial institutions are increasingly providing Islamic financial contracts in global markets. As a result of this market growth, there is a high demand to understand how to assess and manage the risks arising from applying Islamic financial products and services. Credit, operational, market and liquidity risks together with the risk of non-compliance with the Shariah law are becoming very hot issues for financial institutions. This book presents a common framework on how to efficiently manage the risks faced.
