From Pain To Parenthood A Journey Through Miscarriage To Adoption:

From Pain to Parenthood Deanna Kahler, 2013-05-08 Follow one woman's incredible and heartfelt journey from the pain of miscarriages to the joy of becoming a parent through adoption. Witness the many struggles that can permeate your life in the aftermath of pregnancy loss. Take a glimpse at the overwhelming desire some women have to become a mother. Celebrate the joy of overcoming adversity and achieving your dreams. Filled with honest raw emotions and helpful coping tips, From Pain to Parenthood promises to touch your life with a real story that shows the power of the human spirit and the beauty of a mother's love.

Hannah's Hope Jennifer Saake, 2014-02-27 Hannah's Hope is intended as a guide to assist you in making wise decisions as you struggle through your grief of not yet conceiving, losing a child, or struggling through the adoption process.

The Song of My Hope Betsy Kay Ridgway M.S., 2019-08-13 How do you find hope despite your challenges? Based on the author's true life stories, you will be inspired and encouraged. Through her experiences, she will teach you the mysteries of how to keep hope alive. Discover how to share your thoughts in A Longing Fulfilled. At the end of each chapter, treasured secrets are tucked in as well. Hope is more than sunshine and flowers. It's a weapon for fighting your battles.

Feminist Parenting: Perspectives from Africa and Beyond Rama Salla Dieng, Andrea O'Reilly, 2020-04-01 Feminist Parenting: Perspectives from Africa and Beyond asks and considers: What is feminist parenting? Is it something for all parents? What does it mean to be a feminist parent in practice? The collection aims to fill a gap on feminist parenting in the existing literature by bringing timely post-Western perspectives. More specifically, the anthology's main contribution is its explicit focus on feminist parenting from the margins to the global periphery from Africa and its diaspora from the Global South to Europe and America. The 27 parents from diverse backgrounds walk of life and countries gathered in this anthology share powerful responses to the above questions by narrating their experiences of some of the challenges, dilemmas, promises, and compromises of parenting with a feminist perspective. The volume is one of the first collections published with first-person essays describing very touching, beautiful, and sometimes painful stories of what it means and more importantly, what it costs to become a feminist parent with an intersectional approach. In doing so, the authors of this book aim at reclaiming parenting as a necessarily political terrain for subversion, radical transformation, and resistance to patriarchal oppression and sexism.

Infertility and Non-Traditional Family Building Rebecca Feasey, 2019-07-26 This book examines the representation of infertility, assisted reproduction, miscarriage, adoption, and surrogacy in a wide range of media, including blogs, vlogs, social media posts, and factual programming. In so doing, it illustrates how pregnancy loss, involuntary childlessness, and non-traditional mothering are being depicted across the media landscape. Whilst the topic of motherhood has emerged as a significant area of academic debate, narratives of unsuccessful or unconventional mothering have remained largely absent even at a time when there is a growing conversation about infertility online. Timely, pertinent, and original, the book demonstrates the importance of a broader and more informed cultural discussion about fertility and family building.

Issues in Comprehensive Pediatric Nursing, 1976 Title IX and the Protection of Pregnant and Parenting College

Catherine L. Riley, Alexis Hutchinson, Carley Dix, 2022-05-17 This book explores the discrepancies among what protections Title IX provides to pregnant and parenting students what colleges communicate and what pregnant and parenting students actually experience To actually protect pregnant and parenting students the authors argue that a school must provide multifaceted support that is effectively communicated to an entire campus community including students who are parenting who are pregnant and who may become pregnant The first part of the book portrays the realities of pregnancy and parenting in college The chapters illuminate related Title IX applications population demographics how unplanned pregnancies in college occur and physical and mental health challenges that these students often experience The authors then discuss what compliance with Title IX legally entails and why meeting it is often an afterthought In the second half of the book the authors use mixed methods research to map the compliance landscapes of three schools in the southeast as examples a large state school a mid size private university and a small private college Offering eye opening interviews with pregnant and parenting students interdisciplinary research and proposals for multifaceted support and communication on college campuses this volume will engage students scholars and activists with an interest in higher education administration educational policy reproductive health bioethics gender studies and rhetoric

Reproductive Losses Christa

Craven, 2019-05-30 Although there are far more opportunities for LGBTQ people to become parents than there were before the 1990s attention to the reproductive challenges LGBTQ families face has not kept pace Reproductive Losses considers LGBTQ people's experiences with miscarriage stillbirth failed adoptions infertility and sterility Drawing on Craven's training as a feminist anthropologist and her experiences as a queer parent who has experienced loss Reproductive Losses includes detailed stories drawn from over fifty interviews with LGBTQ people including those who carried pregnancies non gestational and adoptive parents and families from a broad range of racial ethnic socio economic and religious backgrounds to consider how they experience loss grief and mourning The book includes productive suggestions and personal narratives of resiliency commemorative strategies and communal support while also acknowledging the adversity many LGBTQ people face as they attempt to form families and the heteronormativity of support resources for those who have experienced reproductive loss This is essential reading for scholars and professionals interested in LGBTQ health and family and for individuals in LGBTQ communities who have experienced loss and those who support them See additional material on the companion website www.lgbtqreproductiveloss.org

Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G.

Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population The Good Mother Myth Avital Norman Nathman, 2013-12-31 In an era of mommy blogs Pinterest and Facebook The Good Mother Myth dismantles the social media fed notion of what it means to be a good mother This collection of essays takes a realistic look at motherhood and provides a platform for real voices and raw stories each adding to the narrative of motherhood we don't tend to see in the headlines or on the news From tales of mind bending panic inducing overwhelm to a reflection on using weed instead of wine to deal with the terrible twos the honesty of the essays creates a community of mothers who refuse to feel like they're in competition with others or with the notion of the ideal mom they're just trying to find a way to make it work With a foreword by Christy Turlington Burns and a contributor list that includes Jessica Valenti Sharon Lerner Soraya Chemaly Amber Dusick and many more this remarkable collection seeks to debunk the myth and offer some honesty about what it means to be a mother Creating Supportive Spaces for Pregnant and Parenting College Students Catherine L. Riley, Katie B. Garner, 2023-12-01 This volume brings together interdisciplinary research theoretical perspectives and detailed explanations of examples to help colleges become supportive spaces for pregnant and parenting students Expanding the discourse around pregnant and parenting college students to a more interdisciplinary and international arena this volume follows the ground breaking monograph Title IX and the Protection of Pregnant and Parenting College Students Riley Hutchinson Dix 2022 The present volume defines this cohesive field and brings together separate voices to help colleges become supportive spaces The chapters explore academia's attitude toward motherhood families and carework the invisibility of pregnant and parenting students system wide negligence the forgotten nature of student fathers unacknowledged miscarriages organized policy change efforts involved agencies of change the troubling presence of coercion and more While arguing that barriers currently prevent colleges from becoming supportive spaces the volume asserts that improvements are both feasible and vital for ensuring that institutions of higher education are complying with Title IX a U S federal law Offering interdisciplinary research explanations of problems and paths for progress this edited volume will be useful to scholars researchers administrators and activists working to support pregnant and parenting students Various chapters will also interest those working in higher education administration education policy reproductive health gender studies and health and organizational communication more broadly Supporting pregnant and parenting college students however is a shared responsibility belonging to all members of a campus community accordingly this volume is for

Far as the Curse Is Found Abigail Waldron,2016-04-05 Abigail Waldron always knew she wanted to be a mother

What she didn't realize was how difficult the journey to motherhood could be. After struggling with infertility and then experiencing a second trimester miscarriage, she's left wrestling with questions about the God she's loved since her childhood, wondering, "How could a good God permit such painful suffering? And how can I keep trusting Him in the face of such great loss?"

Far as the Curse Is Found explores these questions over the course of a year in Abigail's life as she continues her quest to grow her family while seeking God for answers. To help with this process, she interviews eleven other couples on similar journeys—couples who've also had their faith tested by experiences of reproductive loss. The stories in this book, characterized by tragedy and heartache, are difficult. Yet as Abigail engages with them, her sense of isolation is replaced with an awareness of the community that surrounds her. More importantly, she begins to see glimpses of a God who is mysteriously present in our darkest moments, a God who is always at work creating beauty from our brokenness.

The Gathering Annie Laurie, Brian Richardson, 2010-03-09

Daddy please send mommy to find me. After years of gut-wrenching struggles, almost a half a million in adoption expenses, months of separation, hours and hours of pleading prayers on our knees and silently in our hearts, this was it, and there she was.

The Gathering is the account of an incredibly courageous woman. The Gathering is the story of a mother with the support of her husband and children who searched for her missing children in the jungles of the Marshall Islands, the poverty-choked country of Vietnam, and the corrupt country of Haiti. The Gathering is a story of a family that fought and struggled to find their children in the U.S. through private adoptions and state foster care systems. The Gathering is an incredible story of faith, hope, and miracles. This is their story.
