Are you a mom who does it all? This is the book for you. It's impossible to deny most moms continue to do way more household work and childcare than most dads. Working full time, raising kids, cooking dinner, making sure every appointment and activity is lined up, and that everyone gets there on time, no wonder you're tired. But despite all the books and articles lamenting the crushing mental load and emotional labor women bear for their families, no one has come up with a plan to actually make things change. Until now. The Best Moms Don't Do it All is the first book that not only acknowledges the fact that moms are burning out but shows you how to transfer responsibility for daily tasks from yourself to your partner and also gasp your kids. Clinical psychologist and child discipline expert Thomas W. Phelan PhD explains how we got into this mess in the first place and how we can get out of it through a calm, systematic approach to teaching our families how to take initiative and contribute in meaningful ways. Dr. Phelan walks you through real-life situations and shows you how to step back from the things that are dragging you down. For example, Your Maternal Identity, the things you tell yourself you have to do in order to be a good mom, The oppressive trap of chronic supervision, Our society's curious underestimation of children's capabilities, How to eliminate primary childcare with tweens and teens, How to manage resistant or traditionalist dads. Realistic and simple enough to implement in your home right away. The Best Moms Don't Do it All provides a roadmap for you to take your life back and proves that the happiest families share the work and the fun equally.
