

Big Sister

You look up to your big sister.

She lays the path you wish to follow when your older.

She's the one that teaches you how to put on make up,

She's the one that helps you with all your little problems.

You can only dream of her becoming a mother and a wife.

She's your mother's first child.

She's the one to do everything first,

To go through everything first..

She's the one they look at you and go 'thats your sister isn't it? '

She's the one you love.

She's the one who's there when mom can't be.

She's the one i look up to.

She's the one who carries my first niece =)

And she's the one i love.

The Dry Goods Reporter ,1914 Industrial Canada ,1925 Tangled Goods Iddo Tavory,Sonia Prelat,Shelly Ronen,2022-06-24 The advertising industry seems like one of the most craven manifestations of capitalism with large firms crafting creative concepts designed to make big companies bigger through the sale of dubious if not downright harmful products In Tangled Goods authors Iddo Tavory Sonia Prelat and Shelly Ronen consider an important dimension of the advertising industry that appears to depart from the industry's consumerist foundations pro bono ad campaigns Interviewing more than 100 advertisers the authors trace the complicated web of meanings of the good in these pro bono projects Doing something altruistic often helps employees feel more at ease working for big pharma or corporate banks and often these projects afford them greater creative leeway than they normally have not to mention greater potential rewards and recognition Though the authors uncover selfish motivations behind altruistic work they are more interested in considering how these various notions of the good come together and fall apart with different motivations and benefits rising to the surface at different moments This book sheds new light on how goodness and prestige personal and altruistic motivations interact to produce value for individuals and institutions Capacity, Twin Sister to Character in the Four Big C's William Post,1923 Big Sister Gunnar
