Intensive Mothering: The Cultural Contradictions of Modern Motherhood Linda Rose Ennis, 2014-12-01 To celebrate the twentieth anniversary of Sharon Hays landmark book The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood this collection will revisit Hays concept of intensive mothering as a continuing yet controversial representation of modern motherhood In Hays original work she spoke of intensive mothering as primarily being conducted by mothers centered on children s needs with methods informed by experts which are labourintensive and costly simply because children are entitled to this maternal investment While respecting the important need for connection between mother and baby that is prevalent in the teachings of Attachment Theory this collection raises into question whether an over investment of mothers in their children s lives is as effective a mode of parenting as being conveyed by representations of modern motherhood In a world where independence is encouraged why are we still engaging in intensive motherhood
