

GCSE English Reports

is a keen, enthusiastic and hard-working student. He has made good progress so far this year, especially in relation to his creative writing. #### is also showing very good understanding of the impact of the words the writer uses. To improve further, I would like #### to read a range of sophisticated non-fiction and fiction texts at home to further help develop his writing style and analysis. This will also not only help improve his sentence construction and punctuation, but will also familiarise him with understanding and comprehending unseen texts, a key skill in the forthcoming English language exam.

English is a subject that #### sometimes struggles to engage with; too often he is found 'doodling' in his book and not listening. This can lead to a loss of understanding and, unfortunately, underachievement. ####'s recent mock examination results revealed this and it is imperative that he is revising at home as much as possible in order to meet his target grade. Furthermore, he would benefit from planning and responding to the writing tasks with a clear focus on detailed responses with accurate spelling, punctuation and grammar. The target grade is possible, but #### must take heed of my comments if he is to have a chance of succeeding to the level he desires.

is a pleasant student but unfortunately his effort is often poor and his commitment to work limited. #### has made some improvements in recent months and has recently submitted a mock exam which was closer to his target grade, however his nonchalant
