Human Reproduction Practical Memorandum 2014:

The Wrong Prescription for Women Maureen C. McHugh, Joan C. Chrisler, 2015-07-14 This groundbreaking book challenges the medicalized approach to women's experiences including menstruation pregnancy and menopause and suggests that there are better ways for women to cope with real issues they may face Before any woman diets douches botoxes reduces reconstructs or fills a prescription for antidepressants statins hormones menstrual suppressants or diet pills she should read this book Contesting common medical practice the book addresses the many aspects of women's lives that have been targeted as deficient in order to support the billion dollar profits of the medical pharmacological industry and suggests alternatives to these remedies The contributors psychologists sociologists and health experts are also gender experts and feminist scholars who recognize the ways in which gender is an important aspect of the human experience In this eye opening work they challenge the marketing and science that increasingly render women's bodies and experiences as a series of symptoms diseases and dysfunctions that require treatment by medical professionals who prescribe pharmaceutical and surgical interventions Each article in the book addresses the marketing of a specific condition that has been constructed in a way that convinces a woman that her body is inadequate or her experience and behavior are not good enough Among the topics addressed are menstruation menopause pregnancy post partum adjustment sexual desire weight body dissatisfaction moodiness depression grief and anxiety

South Sudan's Injustice System Rachel Ibreck, 2019-08-30 Coming into existence amid a wave of optimism in 2011 South Sudan has since slid into violence and conflict Even in the face of escalating civil war however the people of the country continue to fight for justice despite a widespread culture of corruption and impunity Drawing on extensive new research Rachel Ibreck examines people's lived experiences as they navigate South Sudan's fledgling justice system as well as the courageous efforts of lawyers activists and ordinary citizens to assert their rights and hold the government to account In doing so the author reveals how justice plays out in a variety of settings from displacement camps to chiefs courts and in cases ranging from communal land disputes to the country's turbulent peace process Based on a collaborative research project carried out with South Sudanese activists and legal practitioners the book also demonstrates the value of conducting researching with rather than simply about those affected by conflict At heart this is a people's story of South Sudan what works in this troubled country is what people do for themselves

Digital Afterlife and the Spiritual Realm Maggi Savin-Baden, 2021-12-09 Few religious leaders have examined the potential for the positive impact of digital media and digital immortality creation in religious contexts It is evident that there have been recent moves away from traditional funeral services focusing on the transition of the deceased into the future world beyond towards a rise of memorial content within funerals and commemorative events This has heralded shifts in afterlife beliefs by replacing them to all intents and purposes by attitudes to this life Digital Afterlife and the Spiritual Realm explores the ways in which digital media and digital afterlife creation affects social and religious understandings of death and the afterlife Features Understands the impact of digital media on those living and those working with the bereaved Explores the impact of digital memorialisation post death Examines the ways in which digital media may be changing conceptions and theologies of death For many people digital afterlife and the spiritual realm largely remains an area that is both inchoate and confusing This book will begin to unravel some of this bafflement

The Routledge Companion to Bourdieu's 'Distinction' Philippe Coulangeon, Julien Duval, 2014-10-30 This edited collection explores the genesis of Bourdieu's classical book Distinction and its international career in contemporary Social Sciences It includes contributions from contemporary sociologists from diverse countries who question the theoretical legacy of this book in various fields and national contexts Invited authors review and exemplify current controversies concerning the theses promoted in Distinction in the sociology of culture lifestyles social classes and stratification with a specific attention dedicated to the emerging forms of cultural capital and the logics of distinction that occur in relation to material consumption or bodily practices They also empirically illustrate the theoretical contribution of Distinction in relation with such notions as field or habitus which fruitfulness is emphasized in relation with some methodological innovations of the book In this respect a special focus is put on the emerging stream of distinction studies and on the opportunities offered by the geometrical data analysis of social spaces

Class in the New Millennium Will Atkinson, 2017-02-17 Class in the New Millennium paints a fresh and comprehensive picture of social class in Britain today Anchored in a broad repertoire of methods and pursuing a distinctive theoretical agenda it not only painstakingly maps the structure transformation and effects of the UK's key fault lines but goes behind closed doors to see how they play out in everyday family life Throughout the book Atkinson throws new light on a diverse array of themes including the continued effects of deindustrialisation educational expansion feminisation of the workforce and surging employment insecurity the persistence of lifestyle cleavages despite cultural and technological change the growth of political disengagement the transformation of the Labour Party and the rise of nationalism the entwinement of class with space place and physical movement and the way in which class interacts with intimate relations to shape not just the way we decorate our walls or talk over the dining table but the very reproduction of the class structure itself This innovative title will appeal to scholars as well as advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in the fields of sociology politics and political science cultural studies cultural geography social policy and social work
