If Only Jennifer Gilmore, 2018-07-31 Acclaimed author Jennifer Gilmore's intimate and achingly beautiful novel deftly explores the role that chance and choice play in shaping the lives of two teenagers who are separated by sixteen years but whose lives are intertwined Two Starred Reviews This emotional visceral novel haunted me in the best ways Jennifer Gilmore has written something of real depth which will leave readers thinking for a long time about the lives that other people lead as well as the ones they might have led If Only is gripping and shiveringly beautiful a true achievement Meg Wolitzer bestselling author of The Interestings and Belzhar BEFORE When Bridget imagined her life at sixteen it didn't look like this She didn't think that her boyfriend would dump her for another girl And she certainly didn't think that she would be pregnant With just a few months until she gives birth Bridget must envision an entirely new future one for her baby But as she sifts through the many paths and the many people who want to parent her child she can't help but feel that there is no right decision AFTER Ivy doesn't know much about her birth mother She knows that she is now the same age Bridget was when she placed Ivy for adoption She knows that Bridget was the one who named her And she knows that fifteen years ago Bridget disappeared from Ivy's and her adoptive mom's lives Ivy wants to discover more about herself but as she goes to find Bridget she can't help but feel that the risks might far outweigh the benefits of knowing where she comes from and why her birth mother chose to walk away Gilmore brings special yet subtle artistry to her interwoven story weaving motifs and even seemingly extraneous people through the different iterations to keep each version connected with the others BCCB starred review Gilmore's gritty multigenerational tale not only seeks to ask adoption's toughest questions but dares to offer no easy answers Not to be missed Kirkus starred review Gilmore's writing is emotionally raw yet beautiful touching upon some traditional YA themes with an almost mystical feel New York Times Book Review The G.A.O Journal, 1990
