September Daily Journal Writing Prompts Maria Elvira Gallardo,2005-03-02 Aquí se habla Adam Schwartz,Dalia

Magaña, Devin Grammon, Sergio Loza, 2025-03-03 Aquí se habla serves to envision a more just and equitable Spanish language education that centers language learning as a deeply personal local and lifelong practice. Organized around long standing tension points within and outside the field, this volume features a unique set of contributors whose diverse perspectives help to deconstruct disciplinary boundaries and elevate the knowledge and lived experiences of U.S. Spanish speakers. With chapters that include a variety of formats and dialogues between authors, this invaluable resource is collectively crafted by and for students, researchers, educators, and community partners. The Teacher's Journal Kathleen Adams, Marise

Barreiro, 2013-06-06 Teachers begin the professional journey with a treasure chest full of experiences, hopes, and expectations gathered from early childhood. Yet the everyday stresses and challenges of 21st century classrooms often leave teachers with neither time nor energy to recall their initiating dreams and desires. In this innovative workbook, you will be expertly guided through a journey of self-discovery back to the roots of your story, your evolution as a teacher, and the rituals and routines that help or hurt. You will take time out to remember the ways that teaching blesses you. You will learn to confront the inner critic and push back against the voice that tells you to do more, more, more. You will discover the legacy you leave with your students. You will fall in love with teaching all over again. Illustrated with 115 actual journal entries by 17 teachers in response to 65 well-crafted writing prompts, you will be held in a supportive international community as you rediscover yourself and your innate strengths. A facilitator's guide featuring step-by-step lesson plans prepares you to offer this work as a writing group with peers. Spirituality, Social Justice and Language Learning David I. Smith, Terry Osborn, 2007-02-01

This book sets out to explore the intersections between matters not frequently yoked in academic discussions: spirituality, social justice, and the learning of world languages. The contributing authors contend not only that these intersections exist but that they are the site of issues and realities that require the attention of language educators and point to avenues of growth for the language teaching profession. The essays included seek to indicate the possibilities of a neglected area of inquiry not only in terms of theory but also in terms of the practices of language education. Given this aim of opening up fresh questions, the book is arranged so as to show the relevance of the nexus of spirituality and social justice to teacher education: chapters 3 and 4 language classroom practices; chapters 5 and 6 and the theoretical sources that inform scholarly discussion of language education; chapters 7 and 8. The opening chapters place these explorations in a larger context by showing how they fit into existing social contexts and academic discussions. Teaching World Languages for Specific Purposes Diana M.

Ruggiero, 2022 Teaching World Languages for Specific Purposes provides learner-centered strategies, models, and resources for the development of WLSP curricula. This guide bridges theory and practice, inviting scholars, educators, and professionals of all areas of world language specialization to create new opportunities for their students. Take Five Minutes: American
