Assessing Media Education William Christ, 2017-07-05 The chapters included in this component of Assessing Media Education are intended for those who have already developed an assessment plan and identified key student learning outcomes and who need more information on how to measure the outcomes both indirectly and directly

Media Education Assessment Handbook William G. Christ, 2020-07-24

Assessing media education is a formidable task because both assessment and media education are complex and controversial concepts Assessment which can take place at the individual student class sequence program department or unit and university levels is questioned in terms of reliability validity relevance and cost Media education which has been challenged at a number of schools finds faculty and administrators in the midst of soul searching about how to clearly articulate its missions and purposes to a broader audience Departments are under increasing national state and institutional pressure to get assessment procedures carried out quickly but there is an obvious danger in rushing to implement assessment strategies before establishing what is essential in media education In communication education in general the what of assessment is often discussed in terms of skills attitudes affect values and knowledge People assess students to determine what they know think feel value and can do Here it is suggested that one of the places to start defining what students should learn from their media education is by identifying outcomes Outcomes can be assessed in a variety of ways but first they need to be developed and clearly articulated Assessing Media Education William G.

Christ,2020-10-07 The chapters in this component of Assessing Media Education are valuable for those who need to know how to develop an assessment plan Media Education and the Liberal Arts Robert O. Blanchard,William G.

Christ,2020-07-24 This book provides academic reformers with a blueprint for tackling the upheaval facing media education It calls for a new professionalism that rejects the status quo reflects the mission and diversity of individual programs and demands a redefinition of both traditional media studies and the liberal arts
