Competition Law and Economic Inequality Jan Broulík, Katalin Cseres, 2022-12-15 The gap between the rich and poor is widening across the globe This book explores whether this major societal challenge of our time can be addressed by the means of competition law The primary goal of today s competition law is to ensure that market power does not lead to an inefficient production of goods and services Nevertheless even such efficiency oriented curbing of market power may arguably contribute to the reduction of differences in how much people own and earn Furthermore many competition law regimes do take into account distributive considerations too The chapters investigate the relationship between competition law and economic inequality from philosophical historical and economic perspectives Their inquiries concern the conceptual foundations of competition law and doctrinal frameworks of individual jurisdictions as well as specific problems and markets As such the book provides a novel and comprehensive overview of whether and how competition law can contribute to more equality in both developed and developing countries The book is a must read for researchers public officials judges and practitioners within the competition law community It will also appeal to anyone more broadly interested in issues of inequality and economic policy Antisemitism in Online Communication Matthias J. Becker, Laura

Ascone, Karolina Placzynta, Chloé Vincent, 2024-06-21 The normalisation of hate speech including antisemitic rhetoric poses a significant threat to social cohesion and democracy While global efforts have been made to counter contemporary antisemitism there is an urgent need to understand its online manifestations Hate speech spreads easily across the internet facilitated by anonymity and reinforced by algorithms that favour engaging even if offensive content It often takes coded forms making detection challenging Antisemitism in Online Communication addresses these issues by analysing explicit and implicit antisemitic statements in mainstream online discourse Drawing from disciplines such as corpus linguistics computational linguistics semiotics history and philosophy this edited collection examines over 100 000 user comments from three language communities Contributors explore various facets of online antisemitism including its intersectionality with misogyny and its dissemination through memes and social networks Through case studies they examine the reproduction support and rejection of antisemitic tropes alongside quantitative assessments of comment structures in online discussions Additionally the volume delves into the capabilities of content moderation tools and deep learning models for automated hate speech detection This multidisciplinary approach provides a comprehensive understanding of contemporary antisemitism in digital spaces recognising the importance of addressing its insidious spread from multiple angles Fake News and

Elections in Southeast Asia James Gomez, Robin Ramcharan, 2022-12-30 This book offers a regional analysis of the impact of fake news misinformation malinformation and disinformation on electoral democracy and freedom of expression in Southeast Asia which has taken place in the middle of a global health pandemic The book maps the impact of social media and the internet on democracy in the members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations that have already been in the throes of democratic regression for some time Including an analysis of countries that do not have national elections the chapters provide detailed information on the extent of internet and social media penetration in each country the laws that are deployed to reel in its political potential for critics and demonstrate the impact on democracy or the prospects for democracy Collectively contributors note that disinformation is a serious problem in the region that negatively impacts elections and how governments attempts to deal with the phenomenon inevitably lead to the targeting of dissenting voices and opposition as anti state fake news The deleterious impact on democracy and freedom of expression facilitated by a citizenry that is prone to manipulation of facts appears to be the standard modus operandi in the regional authoritarian complex This book is the first to undertake a regional analysis of disinformation in Southeast Asia and is a significant contribution to the literature on democracy elections and disinformation It will be of interest to researchers in the fields of Political Science and Asian Politics in particular Southeast Asian Politics
